Kyes Calls Truman Arms Setup 'Fantastic,' Plans Revision

WASHINGTON (AP) — Roger M. Kyes, deputy secretary of defense, said today the Eisenhower administration will review the whole munitions picture and weed out high-cost arms plants to keep America strong in peace and war.

"Fantastic," Kyes called some of the planning done by the former Truman administration. A speech he prepared for the U. S. Chamber of Commerce convention here contained the sharpest criticism to come so far from the new administration of the Truman regime's rearmament program.

The No. 2 man in the Defense Department announced:

"Because in some instances the mobilization base is too widely diffused, there will be situations where a sufficient quantity of the item manufactured is not required to maintain a minimum economic production flow in all facilities.

Standby Status

"In these cases, certain of the facilities will be forced to stop production, and where necessary for the maintenance of the mobilization base, arrangements will be made for standby, while in others, the tools will be handled in such a manner as to assure their availability. The general policy will be that of retaining the low-cost producer of desired goods, as against the high-cost producer."

But Kyes also said "careful consideration" would be given to preserving industries vital to defense which do not have full opportunity in civilian economy, noting that "the aircraft industry is an example of this type."

This major policy statement by Kyes presumably reflected the current views of Secretary of Defense Wilson, who has been in Europe. Both men are former top executives of General Motors.

Broad Base Questioned

A month ago Wilson was known to be questioning the wisdom of the "broad case" mobilization program instituted by the former administration.

In his prepared address, Kyes used sharp words in talking of the rearmament program started with the beginning of the Korean War in 1950—"fantastic paper targets," "exaggerated figures," "poor planning and ineffciient execution."

He cited as examples: "One mobilization plan resulted in requirements over and above assets on hand which would cost 530 billion dollars for hard goods alone.' And: "Most of us would question the combat capabilities of a year's surplus of calculating machines."

Roger M. Kyes is a former resident of Marion. His wife is the former Helen Jacoby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jacoby of 383 S. State St.

He declared:

"We have been and are paying dearly for two mistaken conceptions with respect to national security. First: unsound and unrealistic calculations of requirements for materials, equipment and supplies on the part of the military. Second: a neglect of the needs of a minimum military posture in time of peace."

He summed up his views on a mobilization base this way:

When choosing an organization "large or small" to comprise the mobilization base, Kyes said, there are six criteria: (1) it must have the management and technical knowledge required; (2) it must have adequate capacity; (3) it must have enough capital so as not to be fully dependent on federal aid; (4) manpower must be available; (5) generally, no facility should fall below requirements for a minimum economic unit; (6) it should not be given more defense business than it can handle efficiently—up to three or four times its civilian dollar volume.

"An effective base for industrial mobilization is essential, as well as a minimum stockpile of material. We must maintain a careful balance between weapons that are immediately required if war occurs and the lead times necessary to produce in quantity weapons of proven design from existing or readily available capacity.

Desirable Policy

"Technological progress with respect to new weapons and equipment makes this a desirable policy, rather than risk the stockpiling of end items which deteriorate, or quickly become outmoded and obsolete."

A basic problem in munitions production, he said, is that civilians "cut the military to the bone in time of peace" and the military always calls for more than it needs in time of war.

To avoid waste and inefficiency, he said, both segments must practice restraint.

Earlier, President Laurence F. Lee of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce had forecast "sweeping decentralization" of the government.

Lee, of Jacksonville, Fla., told delegates at the opening of the Chamber's 41st annual meeting that the Eisenhower administration respects "business brains and business ability."

The new leadership in Washington, he said, tries to encourage competitive private enterprise, and so "business can operate with a more confident sense of direction."

"A sweeping decentralization of the federal government is in the making," Lee said.

"We can be sure that from it will develop great opportunities and responsibilities for our state Chambers of Commerce, local Chambers and the national Chamber.

"It is entirely probable that some of our private volunteer organizaitons will be shouldering certain functions and services now administered by federal bureaus.

"Many millions of tax dollars can be released for creative and productive purposes by reducing the scope of federal authority, for waste is inherent in all highly centralized governments. So is corruption."

Korea Truce Talks Strike Quick Snag

Communist Plan Flatly Rejected As Unreasonable

PANMUNJOM, Korea, April 27 (AP)—The new Korean armistice talks deadlocked again today as the U. N. Command flatly rejected a Red prisoner exchange proposal which it said offers only return to Communist rule or "endless captivity" for Reds who refuse to go home.

In their second meeting since Oct. 8, both Allied and Communist delegates stood pat on their own plans for settling the exchange problem and bringing a truce in Korea.

Another session was scheduled for 11 a. m. tomorrow.

The truce talks were broken off Oct. 8 by the U. N. Command when it refused to force any prisoner to go home against his will. The Reds demanded all prisoners back, including some 50,000 Chinese and North Koreans who have said they won't go home.

Taft Strives For Action On Tidelands

Aims for Test Vote On Anderson Amendment Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader Taft, declaring "filibusterers are weakening," aimed today for a test vote in the wordy battle over ownership of the oil-rich submerged coastal lands.

The Ohio legislator said he looked for a clearcut show of strength late today on an amendment by Sen. Anderson (D-NM), an advocate of federal control of the controversial areas.

But Taft said he was "not awfully optimistic" about setting up a date for a final vote on the House-approved bill which has been a storm center of Senate debate since April 1.

Anderson's amendment would knock out the bill's provision to establish state title to the offshore lands within the states' historic boundaries. It would substitute provisions to give the federal government title to the lands, with 37½ per cent of revenues from to call of the talks again unless the Reds show willingness to negotiate constructively, Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison, senior Allied delegate, said it's "far too early" to think about such a move.

Meanwhile, the Panmunjom gate to freedom for sick and wounded Allied prisoners stood closed by the Reds.

The Communists said Sunday's shipment of 84 disabled Allied prisoners ended their delivery. In seven days they turned back 684—149 Americans, 470 South Korean men and one woman, and 64 disabled prisoners from other nations. They had promised 605.

However, a U. N. spokesman said "considerably more" sick and wounded Reds would be returned than the 5,800 originally pledged, but he did not give any figure. The transfer of Communists continued at its 500-a-day rate.

In Tokyo, a U. N. spokesman said the first Americans released would be flown to the U. S. "this week for sure and probably within the next couple of days." He did not give a specific date or number.

At Monday's 52-minute armistice meeting, each side suggested that the other take another careful look at its proposal.

Harrison told newsmen, "In this short time we have no real basis for assuming the Communists will not negotiate in good faith."

A reporter had asked him if the

Ashland Sergeant Tells Of Treatment by Reds

TOKYO (AP)—A repatriated U. S. corporal who once escaped from a Red prison camp for four days said today some fellow captives "squealed" to the Chinese about American escape plots.

And an Ohio sergeant said a Chinese officer reported searching 11 days for a wrist watch and wedding band confiscated when he was taken prisoner last month. He said the officer finally gave him a different watch worth twice as much and a different wedding band.

The Ohio sergeant, Ned Kelley, 23, of 19 E. Eighth St., Ashland, said the wedding band was replaced with one that apparently had belonged to another American captive.

Kelley, taken prisoner near the Hook on the Western Front, was blinded in his left eye and suffered back wounds in a patrol fight March 20.

Ten days after being captured, he said, the Red officer asked him if any belongings had been taken from him. He told the officer that his watch, wedding band, lighter and pen were gone.

The officer brought back the pen and lighter but said he couldn't find the other items.

Then he offered Kelley a 14 carat white gold wedding band and his choice of a dozen watches.

"I think they must be things taken from other GI's," he told newsmen. "I think it was on account of this repatriation and peace talks. The Communists want-

Left at White House on Masonic Visit

Gavel Made by Marionite Presented to Eisenhower

A gavel made by David E. Montgomery of 655 Delaware Ave., past master of Marion Lodge No. 70, F. & A.M., was left for President Eisenhower at the White House Saturday morning by two members of the local lodge.

Approximately 100 members of the Marion lodge and surrounding lodges were in Washington, D.C., for a two-day visit.

The gavel was left at the office of Roger Steffan, special assistant to the assistant of the President. Harold Hall, secretary of the local lodge, and Earl Cook, a member of the Bucyrus lodge who is director of the Federal Depository Insurance Corporation, left the gavel with the chief usher at the White House, who turned it over to Steffan's office. Steffan was to present it later to the President. It was accompanied by a letter from Montgomery telling the President about the gavel.

The gavel was made from a cedar tree excavated from the marl beds at Castalia, O. The tree is estimated to be 8,500 years old. It was entirely made of wood from the cedar tree except for a piece of white wood inlayed in the gavel's handle on which has been written in pen and ink, "Dwight D. Eisenhower, 34th President of the United States. this gavel is made of wood 8,500 years old, D. E. Montgomery."

Montgomery, whose hobby for years has been wood working, learned of the tree being unearthed at Castalia, O., through a dairy supply salesman who calls at his place of business, the Ideal Dairy.

Montgomery later obtained a piece of wood, 2½ inches square and 18 inches long, out of which he made the gavel.

Montgomery said the wood was neither soft nor hard with age and that there still was a strong aroma of cedar. He explained that the wood had been preserved by the deposit of pure lime in the marl beds.

Montgomery, always a lover of wood, has had his hobby some 14 to 15 years. He has presented gavels to every master of the local lodge and every worthy matron of the Eastern Star at their installations for the past 12-14 years.

The lodge members at Washington toured the FBI Building Friday morning and witnessed the opening of the House of Representatives Friday noon. They visited the Senate chambers in the afternoon.

The group went on a special tour of the White House Saturday morning and then to the Arlington National Cemetery where a wreath was laid on the grave of Henry Cusick, past member of the Warren G. Harding Lodge in Washington. A dinner was held Saturday evening at Rector's Restaurant and later the group went to the Harding Masonic Temple where the officers of the Marion lodge conferred the Master Mason's degree on a local candidate.

The group, which left by special train Thursday afternoon, left Washington Sunday morning for their return trip.

The Washington trip is part of an exchange program conducted by Lodge 70 and the Washington lodge. Officers of the latter lodge come to Marion each year for Memorial Day services.

offshore developments in the marginal sea going to the coastal states.

Backers of federal control, while conceding they are outnumbered 2-1 by senators favoring state control, have held the floor in long speeches which they contend are designed, not as filibusters, but to "educate the public."

Taft has threatened around-the-clock meetings as routine beginning tomorrow, unless there is early agreement on a date for final voting. He said he might move to keep the Senate in session next Sunday.

Once the Anderson amendment is disposed of, Taft said yesterday, he will call for votes on amendments by Senators Hill (D-Ala) and Malone (R-Nev).

Hill's proposal would go a step beyond Anderson's by providing that federal royalties from oil in the submerged lands be set aside for aid to schools. Malone's amendment would give the states title to mineral rights on most federal public lands within their boundaries.

Opponents of state ownership had a strategy caucus scheduled today, but Hill said he doubted they would be willing to quit talking right away. Taft said yesterday there was no press of legislation for the next two weeks but he felt the bill's opponents were "rather inclined to be reasonable" about ending the debate.

Anderson said on an NBC television show last night he thinks the state ownership bill will be passed within the next two weeks.

Former Marion Man Killed In Venezuela Mishap

Robert Charles Stine, 37, former ly of Marion, was killed instantly Saturday morning in an industrial accident at Barcelona, Venezuela, where he was employed. The fatality occurred in an explosion at the welding shop of the Phillips Petroleum Co. at Barcelona where Mr. Stine was superintendent. He had worked for the company the last four years, going to Venezuela from California.

Born April 1, 1916, in Marion, he was a son of Benjamin R. and Mary Moore Stine. March 28, 1941, at Pasadena, Calif., he married Jone Kressen. Graduated from Harding High School in 1934, he went to California in 1940.

Surviving are his widow, his parents, and a son, Dennis Stine, 8.

The body was to arrive in Chicago this morning and in Marion tonight. Tentative funeral arrangements are for services Thursday Friends may call at the Boyd Funeral Home on W. Columbia St after 7:30 Tuesday.

Chief Retiring After 65 Years

William F. Mader, 88, Oldest Chief in Ohio —Maybe in Nation

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS—After 65 years' service as Bucyrus' only fire chief, William F. Mader, 88, has submitted his resignation, effective July 1, to Mayor Frank P. Sitler

The chief, who is the oldest fire chief both in points of service and in age in Ohio, and possibly the nation, said he is resigning because of failing eyesight. He was named chief July 1, 1888, when he was 23 years old after he had been a volunteer fireman five years.

The second oldest member of Bucyrus' famed 50-Year Club which is composed of Bucyrians who have followed the same occupation here a half century, Chief Mader also is a charter member of the Ohio Association of Fire Chiefs. He was guest of honor in November, 1950, at a testimonia dinner given here by the associa tion.

For many years the chief has been the lowest paid member of his department. He has received a nominal salary of $1,800 a year He is vice president and director of the Bucyrus City Bank.

Chief Mader said the largest single loss in a fire here during his 65-year career occurred in November, 1944, when flames swept the Firestone, Morris and Baumoel stores, causing a loss of $103,000. In 1946, fire gutted his own Mader Block building in downtown Bucy rus during fire prevention week.

Two of his fire-fighters died on duty, the chief recalled. Assistant Chief John Volk died in 1912 of a heart attack in a smoke-filled house and Fireman William Heckenhauer was injured fatally in a fall in the Hub Clothing Store fire in 1929.

Mayor Sitler said today a civil service examination for the vacancy probably will be held in June.

Well, Police chief Kermit Westbay of Lima can tell you what to do if it happens outside the city limits.

"Just what any other citizen would do," said Westbay, tenderly massaging a massive shiner on his left eye. "I called the sheriff."

Westbay followed through with an assault and battery charge against Richard Garee, 23, of Lakeview, Logan County. Justice Frank Killian released Garee under $50 bond.

The black eye came Sunday at Westbay's filling station on U. S. 30, South. The chief said he tried to quiet a disturbance.

Hearings On Foreign Trade

Proposed Tariff Bill May Be Altered To Avoid Clash With Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Richard Simpson (R-Pa) said today he is willing to drop a controversial provision in his reciprocal trade bill which would bar any lowering of tariffs to levels found to imperil American industry.

Simpson's new stand seemed likely to go a long way toward averting a sharp, open clash between President Eisenhower and key House Republicans on the touchy issues of tariffs and foreign trade.

The Pennsylvania congressman disclosed his position as the House Ways and Means Committee prepared to open hearings today on his bill to extend the Reciprocal Trade Act for one year beyond June 12.

This week's witnesses are from groups which support high protective tariffs. The leadoff witness was O. R. Strackbein, speaking for a committee of industry, agriculture and labor on import-export policy.

3,000 Attend Opening Of Annual Home Show

The fourth annual Home and Better Living Show opened at the Coliseum Sunday with a total of more than 3,000 persons attending the afternoon and evening programs.

Of the total some 1,900 visitors attended the afternoon program from 2 to 5 p.m. and 1,200 were present for the evening session from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Spokesmen for the Exchange Club, which is sponsoring the show, said this was the largest opening day crowd in the four-year history of the project. The total was some 30 per cent higher than the number attending on the first day last year.

Exhibitors and members of the Exchange Club also said the visitors seemed more interested in various exhibits and remained longer than in past years.

Those who had attended previous shows were impressed by the increased size of this year's show both in number and types of exhibits.

There are a total of 82 booths displayed by 36 merchants, many of which include actual demonstrations of the use or operation of new or improved products.

Television sets, refrigerators, gas and electric stoves, room air conditioners, attic fans, sweepers, sewing machines, and numerous other appliances are demonstrated.

Included in the 82 booths also are model kitchen, dining rooms, bathrooms, living rooms and bedrooms. There are displays of numerous kinds of wall covering such as plastic tile, wall board of all kinds, wallpaper, and several kinds of paint.

Boats, guns and numerous other items of sports equipment are also exhibited along with all kinds of musical instruments.

For outside the home, there are several displays of aluminun, steel, and canvas awnings, lawn furniture, and gardening and yard equipment.

son, Donald in their Kenton home.

Prosecutor Paul McKinley said this morning his office was still investigating conditions leading up to the boy's death Saturday.

Mrs. Shaw admitted killing the boy in a statement to Police Chief Clarence Sheldon, Sheriff Clarence Brown and McKinley when they requestioned her after Dr. H. R. Johansen, coroner, became suspicious upon examining the child's body.

Cause of death was determined to be cerebral hemorrhage caused by a heavy blow to the head. Earlier, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw reported the boy died from a fall against a tricycle.

In her statement to the officials, Mrs. Shaw told of an argument with her husband. In a fit of anger because she thought the boy loved his father more than he loved her, Mrs. Shaw admitted kicking the boy several times after knocking him to the floor of the living room in their Kenton home.

The husband said he was in the kitchen at the time of the beating. Two other Shaw children, three - year - old Vera and seven-weeks-old Theresa, also were in the house. They are now with their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Givens of near Pfeiffer Station, east of Kenton.

Mrs. Shaw told authorities that the beating occurred around noon Saturday. By 2 p.m., the couple thought the child was dead. It was 6:30 p.m. before they notified police on the advice of relatives.

The couple, natives of Hardin County, had lived in Kenton about six months.

Shaw is employed at the International Railway Car Co. in Kenton.

Drag for 2 Bodies At Indian Lake

BELLEFONTAINE, O. (AP)—State park authorities will renew dragging operations today in attempt to recover the bodies of two Antioch College students who apparently drowned Saturday when their canoe capsized.

David Frankel, 19, of Harrisburg, Pa., and William Kreuger, 19, of Tomah, Wis., are presumed to have drowned in the rough, windswept waters of Indian Lake.

Park officers recovered the canoe and a pair of swimming trunks before high waves and wind forced them to call off dragging operations Sunday.

Zanesville Man Shot By Policeman

ZANESVILLE, O. (AP)—A 28-year-old Zanesville construction worker was shot to death in his home Sunday by a policeman while his brother and fiancee looked on, police said today.

Police Chief C. H. Courtney said Carroll C. (Jerry) Chandler was killed while resisting arrest by Patrolman Richard Wise. He absolved Wise of any neglect in the shooting.

Courtney said Wise was on routine patrol when he saw Chandler stumble on the steps of his home. He said Wise asked Chandler if he could "make it." And Chandler cursed him. Wise then attempted to arrest Chandler for intoxication but Chandler ran into the house.

Wise followed and Chandler and his brother, Leonard, struggled with the patrolman, said Courtney, adding that Carroll picked up a flower pot, apparently intending to use it as a weapon.

He said Wise drew his service revolver and Leonard grabbed it and pushed Wise into a window. The gun discharged, shooting Carroll in the chest, Courtney said.

Naomi Gibson, 17, who said she was the dead man's fiancee, was held as a material witness. Leonard Chandler was held under charges of interfering with an officer and resisting arrest.

Both soldiers told their stories of life in North Korean prison camps to newsmen at Tokyo Army Hospital. They are recuperating after being released in the sick and wounded exchange at Panmunom last week.

A U. N. spokesman said the first group of repatriated Americans will start for the U. S. by plane "in the next few days." He gave no specific date or number.

The corporal, Harry E. Purvis of York, S. C., said some captives tipped of the Chinese about Americans plotting escapes. But he gave no details.

He said there were about 15 "progressives" in the camp who "hung around with the Chinese."

Purvis related softly how he slipped out of his camp near the Yalu River and started walking toward Korea's west coast.

Four days later, he said, "some kids reported me."

"I spotted North Korean soldiers running toward me. I took off but they soon caught me.

DeGaullists Lose In French Election

PARIS (AP) — French voters turned their backs on Gen. Charles de Gaulle's rally of the French People in municipal elections Sunday.

At the same time, the Communists just about held their own in the working class districts of the big cities, but lost votes and control of some town halls in rural areas.

The biggest gainers from the rebuff to the Rally of the French People were independents who had rallied around the name of former Premier Antoine Pinay. During his term of office, Pinay made a determined and well publicized effort to hold down prices that won him great personal popularity.

The Gaullists started their rise to political power in the 1947 municipal elections. At the time they captured about 27 per cent of the vote to equal Communist strength. They maintained their popularity in the national elections of 1951, but since have been hampered by the general's refusal to cooperate with other anti-Communist parties.

Dive-Bombing U.S. Jets Rip Red Positions

SEOUL (AP) — Deadly American Sabre jets flew dive bombing missions in close support of Allied ground forces today for the first time in the 34-month-old Korean War.

The Sabres — until recently used only for air battle with Red MIG jets — pounded Communist troops and positions.

On the Eastern Front, U. S. 45th Division infantrymen hurled back a pre-dawn attack of 150 North Koreans close to the main Allied line on the Eastern Front.

The U. S. troops counted 26 Reds killed or wounded in the 35-minute company-size attack near the Punchbowl on the Eastern Front.

Four smaller probes also were stopped along the 155-mile battle front, including one against Allied listening posts near the Panmunjom truce site.

In the air, U. S. Fifth Air Force planes dive-bombed 250,000 pounds of high explosives into Communist troop and supply concentrations across Central North Korea. Screening Sabre jets damaged one Red MIG, the Fifth Air Force reported.

AMERICA'S SMOKERS GIVE CAMELS BIGGEST LEAD EVER!

CAMELS get Greatest Vote of Confidence in cigarette history!

Consider these facts:

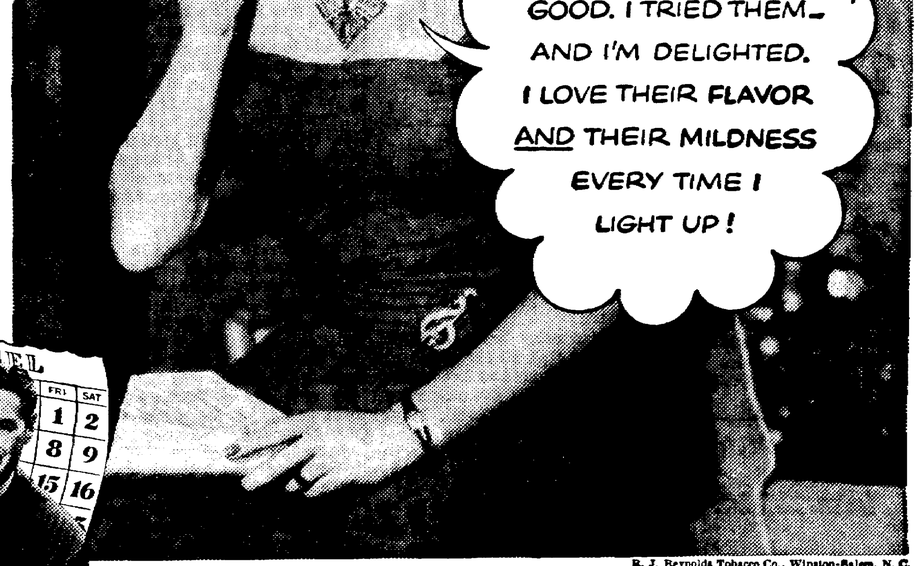
In the face of all the broad claims of other brands . . . in spite of all the new-fangled smokes . . . more people step up and buy Camels than any other cigarette!

In fact, Camel's lead in popularity has become the widest in cigarette history!

What does this mean to you?

Simply this: to be that popular, Camels must be better, must be more pleasing than the other brands. If you want to enjoy cigarettes more than ever, try Camels. Try them for 30 days and see how Camel's exclusive blend of costly tobaccos brings you rich flavor and friendly mildness — pack after pack after pack!

Test CAMELS yourself for 30 days... see what you've been missing!



Dorothy Kirsten

Kyes Tightens Defense Dept. Security Lid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Even the military's top public relations officials may be left in the dark about some defense developments under a new Pentagon security order effective today.

The order was issued by Roger Kyes, acting secretary of defense during Charles E. Wilson's absence in Europe, and follows by one month Wilson's tightening up of information outlets to keep secrets from leaking.

The new directive says, in effect, that only officials authorized to know will be permitted to pass security data on to anybody else. The person who gives the information, not the one who receives it, will be responsible for deciding whether he should do so.

Thus, a public information officer who had received a query from a newsman and didn't have the answer—or lacked enough knowledge of the subject to be sure whether or not he should talk about it—might be turned down by any official from whom he sought information.

Crown Cavalcade — The Predecessors of Elizabeth II

No. 7: Richard I "the Lionhearted." Ruled England 1189-1199.

Born: 1157, third son of Henry II, whom he forced to make him the heir. Richard became one of the worst English kings. An English historian says, "He enjoyed a higher reputation in later ages than his life ever merited. Arrogant, cruel, treacherous and rapacious, he was fit only for warfare." Two years after being crowned, he began the Third Crusade and thereafter he was preoccupied with military expeditions. England realized one gain from his negligent and costly reign. In order to obtain funds for his expeditions and also for his ransom when he was captured in Austria, Richard's ministers sold civic franchises, trading rights and other grants to the guilds and mercantile corporations, and enabled a powerful middle class of merchants and tradesmen to rise in England.

Effigy of Berengaria, Richard's queen who never saw England. She was Spanish.

Contemporary portrait of Richard I, and an old engraving of him leading his knights [↓] in the futile Crusade.

Today's Prayer

Our Dear Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the many blessings Thou hast bestowed upon us. We ask Thee to make us better Christians in the future than we have been in the past. We ask Thee to bless all the sick, the afflicted, the poor and needy, and those who are helpless and blind. We ask Thee to bless our President of these United States —show him the way, the light and the truth.

We ask it in Thy name and we will give Thee the praise, honor and glory now and forever. Amen.

Oklahoma Village Unashamed of Name

KREMLIN, Okla. (AP)—Tourists pass daily through this city and smirk at its name.

But residents here refused to get red-faced.

They explain Kremlin is a breed of saddle horse, as well as a place in Russia. They add not only was the town named after a horse, but it was named by the daughter of a "capitalist" railroad executive who admired that particular kind of horse back in 1894.

U.N. Scapegoat

Simultaneously with adjournment of the United Nations Assembly in New York City, the Daughters of the American Revolution in Washington were calling for disbandment of this experiment in cooperative security.

The D.A.R. is inclined to write off the U.N. as a failure — and worse than that. Some of its members contend the experiment never should have been tried because it is anti-American.

The question is not likely to be settled in this generation. Some Americans regarded the League of Nations as anti-American, too, and never changed their minds.

But one aspect of the question seems to be capable of settlement. It is human nature to believe the worst of anything which has been a source of bitter disappointment. The U.N. has been a source of bitter disappointment. It also has been the victim of gross and malicious misrepresentation by persons who have made it the scapegoat for their hard feelings about politics and the unpleasant realities of a postwar world.

In other words, what is said about and against the disillusionment of the postwar world. Psychology as well as politics is concerned in the appraisal of its work and status at this point in its still short existence.

Drive on Blabbermouths

Since the Eisenhower administration's drive on "blabbermouths" has been announced and will soon be a fact of life in Washington, it is noteworthy that here is a word without dictionary sanction.

Neither Webster's Unabridged nor Oxford English acknowledges the word, though both are familiar with its cousins. A "blabbermouth" becomes in official usage a "blabber"—one who chatters indiscreetly.

The idea goes back a very long way in English usage, always in connection with loose talk. Its present danger, of course, is in relation to secrets having to do with national security.

Grist for GOP

By David Lawrence

Democratic Tactics Blocking Will of Voters

The Democrats certainly don't intend to help the Republicans increase their majority in Congress in the 1954 elections, but that's the effect being produced by various Democrats in the Senate as they have placed obstruction after obstruction in the path of the new administration, thus preventing it from carrying out by legislation the demand of the country for a "change."

The Republicans will certainly have a good case as they point out that the American people cannot get the change they voted for in 1952 unless they elect an overwhelming majority of Republicans in the House and Senate.

For four weeks now, a large number of Democrats have blocked action on the so-called "Tidelands" bill. The big appropriation bills and the many other pieces of important legislation will be delayed by the dilatory tactics of the opponents of "Tidelands" legislation.

What is difficult to understand is that those who claim to be Democrats are fighting against state's rights. The argument would seem to be that the governments of the 48 states of the Union cannot be trusted to take care of the leasing of federal lands on an honest basis but that some one bureaurat in the federal government can be.

As one looks back at the corruption during the Truman administration, when it was possible to bribe officials to get favors done in various departments of the government, and as one recalls that during the Harding administration it was easy to "fix" a cabinet officer and get Teapot Dome oil lands, the question might well be raised whether it isn't safer to leave to the States rather than to the federal government the question of disposing of oil lands. There is safety in numbers anyway — it isn't easy to "fix" all the States.

The implication that some sort of scandal is inevitable, rivaling "Teapot Dome," if the States are given full power is a bit of political demagoguery which on the stump will be easy to rebut, especially since it will afford an opportunity to the Republicans to rehash all the Truman administration scandals.

But, irrespective of the mereits of the "Tidelands" controversy, the fact that Democrats are blocking the work of the Senate will furnish an excellent campaign text for the Republicans in 1954, because they will contend that important reforms promised the people were blocked by the Democrats.

There are some significant principles involved in the "Tidelands" controversy. It is to be noted that advocates of public ownership — which is a form of state socialism — are among the supporters of the effort to give the federal government complete authority over all resources.

There was a time in American history when the States held very little land and the federal government owned most of it. Public opinion through decades of history has favored the widest possible distribution of federally owned lands to the people.

A majority in both Houses want to settle the "Tidelands" issue by voting to give the States control over marginal lands up to and including the territorial coastal waters of the States. The president will sign such a bill if the minority permits him to receive it. This should have happened weeks ago.

Also, in the Executive branch of the government, the Democrats are stirring up fuss after fuss every time a cabinet officer wants to appoint policy-making officials who are in accord with his views rather than keeping—under a phony civil service coverage — officials who should have had political sense enough to step out and let the Republicans accept full responsibility for their acts.

The Democratic strategists are certainly not studying the political history of America if they think that they can hamstring in Congress an administration elected by an overwhelming majority.

The tactics to date will make votes for the Republicans in 1954 because the Republicans will plead for a real majority in Congress in order to give the people the things they asked for when they voted in 1952 to repudiate the record of the Democratic party.

Straight From the Horse's Mouth

"Voice" Capitalizing on Red Confusion

By Earl H. Voss

The Voice of America is having a field day while Stalin's heirs scramble for power. If the broadcasts are getting through Iron Curtain-jamming, they must be confirming a lot of subversive ideas in the average Russian's mind.

In dramatizations, in newscasts, in commentaries and in other programs the Voice has been making these points:

1—The new Kremlin leaders aren't giving the people much more of a break on their standard of living than Stalin did.

2—The Soviet press' strange disinterest in Malenkov betrays the basic insecurity of Soviet leadership, and probably signals a new secret from the Chinese people."

The Voice is bearing down heavily on the theatrical gimmick known as the "switcheroo" in the doctors' plot, especially in programs beamed at the satellites:

"Can there now be any doubt that the Prague trial of Rudolf Slansky and his associates was equally infected with the Hitlerite style of anti-Semitism? Were the same 'inadmissable means' used to extort confessions from Laszlo Rajk in Hungary . . .? Will Cardinal Mindszenty now be released from his prison cell in Hungary or the American newspaperman William Oatis from his dungeon in Prague?

"Can any one now doubt that the Strangely missing are greetings to the beloved leader Malenkov from the party organizaions, the unions, clubs or kolkhozes. No one thanks Malenkov personally for a happy life. Worse still, quotations from the speeches of Comrade Malenkov have disappeared from the editorials, and his name is not even mentioned in the lengthy articles by the party dignitaries. Formerly, such articles repeated the name of Stalin dozens of times. Even communiques from the Council of Ministers were printed without the signature of its chairman.

"Things have come to such a pass that in some editions of Pravda — for instance those of

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Another Tough Day at U.N.

Window - washers have begun the job of washing the 5,400 windows in the United Nations' skyscraper. We assume that in going ahead with this outdoor job the usual indoor pattern at U.N. was followed:

Chairman—We will come to order. The item on today's agenda is window-washing. Are there any speakers?

Britain—Sir, my delegation is prepared to sanction this window - washing - operation. We question the timing but are willing to go along with those favoring the idea.

France—My government is for opaque windows and a clear view from the inside out. At the same time this is no ordinary window-washing operation, but a gigantic project upon which we should not proceed too hastily. We must face the question: Are we capable of attaining a five thousand, four hundred window objective or should we settle for less at this time.

Poland—The Polish delegation opposes this window - cleaning until it knows more about it. It is all very well for certain interests to say five thousand, four hundred windows are dirty, but where is the proof? This could be an old bandit trick of certain people to impose upon tenants who do not want their windows washed. Their right to dirty windows must be respected.

Russia—The USSR charges that this window-washing project is a plot. We have affidavits to show that most of the window-cleaners employed on this operation are dirty spies. As the whole world knows, water buckets and chamois skins have been loaded with bacilli in an extension of germ warfare. Only yesterday a sponge was dropped from the twenty-third floor, landing on an unsuspecting victim who became an immediate victim of typhus, smallpox and sponge-fright. Furthermore, it is a violation of the U.N. charter to wash windows.

United States—Sirs, this is the same old battle between the free world and the slave world The free world wants to wash windows. The Soviet bloc opposes the idea. It holds the world of washed windows and the world of unwashed windows cannot get along together.

Czechoslovakia — Down with warmongering, murderous, lying window - washers everywhere! This filthy scheme to make it easier to look in and out of windows, thus satisfying the curiosity of the enemies of peoples opposed to such spying tactics. . .

At this point word comes to U.N. that a window - washer has been caught on a ledge on the 33rd floor by a roadblock and is in danger of being shot down. A resolution declaring the roadblock an act of aggression and authorizing the sending of an international force of window-cleaners to rescue the man is introduced. It is passed with India and the Arab states abstaining. It is understood, however, that the marooned window - cleaner will settle for a

Thus, anyone in Washington who says what should have been left unsaid becomes in some degree a "blabbermouth." It may be taken for granted, however, that the degree will be determined by the rank of the "blabbermouth."

An over-stimulated clerk who talks out of turn at a cocktail party will be dealt with summarily, whereas an over - stimulated cabinet officer charmed by the sound of his own voice at a reception will be dealt with less than summarily, a practice as old as the history of blabbing, which began in the Year 1 B.C. and has flourished continuously ever since.

How Long for Education?

University of Chicago's "adjustment" in the speed-up curriculum pioneered by Robert M. Hutchins, when he was the boy wonder of higher education, may stir academic misgivings which go too long unstirred.

Dr. Hutchins moved education out of its country-club lethargy in the thirties with a progressive approach to some of the problems of the University of Chicago. It is interesting that the Ford Foundation, which he now serves, is carrying on the most startling of his innovations.

Foundation funds are available for colleges which want to continue the Hutchins experiment with accelerated education. Exceptionally brilliant students are being advanced from the sophomore year of high school to college, with uniformly successful results. It all depends on the ability and ambition of the students.

There is no reason why all students should spend the same amount of time in higher education. That is all Dr. Hutchins ever tried to prove, and he is still proving it. The "adjustment" being made by his successor at the University of Chicago does not disprove anything. It is merely an acknowledgement that ordinary students require eight years after grammar school to qualify for an arts degree.

Or as Dr. Hutchins put it somewhat more harshly a while back: "American education is a colossal housing project designed to keep young people out of worse places until they are able to go to work."

Buggies With a Wire in Front

To show a rising generation of auto enthusiasts there's no mystery about their interest in sports cars, old-timers could point out that all automobiles originally were sports cars.

If Henry Ford's mass-produced go-devils are used as a point of reference, the model T's were all convertibles—converted buggies with a loop of wire in front. A right-handed cranker twisted 'er tail, yanked the wire and if everything had been done correctly the engine popped off and settled down to a roar of leashed power.

Every hotspur yearned for a Stutz Bearcat, a Jordan, or a glimpse of a Dusenberg. But most hotspurs settled for Fords; that was mass production's secret. The luxury was converted into a necessity. And now there's a tendency to convert the necessity back into a luxury.

In deference to the record, it should be kept straight that automobiling started with sports cars and has come full cycle. Youngsters inclined to point this out to disapproving oldsters should do so without restraint. It will give the old-timers a chance to tell how they felt when they first hit 40 on a straightaway.

Best and cheapest antidote for the insidious lethargy generated by this coming together of compatible nucleii within two miles of the center of the blast is contact with photogenesis in any or all of its forms, preferably under a tree on the bank of a bubbling brook.

Then there also is spring fervor.

physical aspects, which are formidable, spring fever is akin to the ebb and flow of the tides and the economy waves which periodically inundate the bogs and bureaucratic fastnesses of the Potomac lowlands.

Therapeutic approaches to this mystery are no further along than in the primitive era of sulphur, blackstrap and spinal manipulations. Vitamins have been tried, with bock beer as a rinse, without discernible effect. Also, the young have been sent on extended trips to the Continent and to visit their cousins in distant cities. Also without discernible effect.

They might as well have stayed in the contagious ward with the middle-aged and the old, who go into nostalgic torpors and stare into space, blinking their bespectacled and rheumy eyes in the brightening sun and harming no one. phase in the struggle for power which can bring nothing but grief for the people.

3—While the Kremlin power struggle rages, the satellite countries are in an impossible position — they don't know which horse to back.

4—The Kremlin's admission that it framed the 15 doctors convicted of murdering high Soviet officials merely confirms what the Voice has been telling people behind the Iron Curtain all along — that the purges and espionage trials, the germ-warfare charges, indeed most of the Red propaganda, have been a pack of lies.

5—If satellite aping of Kremlin techniques is carried to its legal conclusion there should be a review of all the satellites' phony trials, those falsely accused who are still alive should be released, and false accusers should be jailed instead.

The special attention to the satellites may reflect the influence of the new secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, who has repeatedly called for a more positive attitude toward the people behind the Iron Curtain.

Here is a sample of Voice commentary to the satellites on the recently announced price cuts for Russia:

"We are wondering about . . . . the effect of the price cuts on the people of the satellite countries. We wonder how they feel when they are told that prices in the Soviet Union are being reduced while prices in their own countries are zooming upward under the pressure of Soviet-enforced shortages.

"Radio Moscow claims Soviet living standards are being improved but the Czechoslovakian knows that Communism has disastrously reduced his living standard — once among the highest in Europe.

"Moscow has announced that beef and meat prices are to be reduced 15 per cent. But how does the Hungarian feel about this? The 'fatherland of the goulash' has become virtually a land without meat — in many cases only rabbit is available and not very much of this. The present diet is worse than that of the leanest years of the war. The same condition exists in other satellites.

And "while the Kremlin was announcing its 10 per cent cut in bread prices in Moscow, prices of bread was doubling in Poland."

The Sino-Soviet Trade Pact, in which the Chinese promised food and raw materials for heavy industrial goods, gave the Voice an opportunity to rework an old theme, that the Soviet Union preys on its satellites:

"The Chinese Communist regime has just accomplished two typical feats of satellite statesmanship. First, it has concluded a deal whereby the hungry Chinese will ship a lot of food to the Soviet Union. Second, it has so far succeeded in keeping the matter a purported confessions of two American prisoners in North Korea were either invented or extorted — in Pravda's own words — by methods of investigation which are inadmissible and most strictly forbidden?"

Here is a sample Voice script discussing the Soviet press' sudden disinterest in Malenkov:

"Something very strange is happening to the Soviet newspapers. After the death of Stalin, Malenkov, the new leader, inherited the post of head of the government.

"Compared to the old Stalin guard, Malenkov can be considered as just an upstart. The people know little about Malenkov as a person, about his past, his services to his country or to the revolution — if any. It would seem that the first and most important task of the Soviet press would be to popularize the new premier to show the imposing figure of Stalin's heir in the very best light. . . . But Malenkov has practically disappeared from the pages of the press.

"It is useless to search the pages for a biography of Malenkov, for something about his family, for a description of past heroic deeds, for excerpts from his works. . . .

"No clubs, factories or cities have been renamed in his honor.

March 13 and 23 — the name of Malenkov isn't mentioned at all, and during the other days of the two-week period, only in passing once or twice."

The Voice seized on the announced arrest of Minister of State Security Ignatiev to emphasize the implications for Malenkov in this move:

"This Ignatiev as recently as last month was made a member of the five-man Secretariat of the Central Committee of the Communist party. He is presumed to be a Malenkov man. And a big fact begins to loom up in the fog: Malenkov may not have been able to protect him."

From the beginning the Voice has treated the whole peace offensive with skepticism. It has pointed out to European satellites and the Soviet people, for instance, that none of the peace moves has been inconsistent with the Moscow aim of breaking up moves toward West European unity.

On the other hand, the Voice is giving the widest possible circulation to President Eisenhower's peace counteroffensive, launched last week.

On balance, it would seem that the Voice is deftly steering a middle course.

More Lattimore Story

By Raymond Moley

Last week the president of Johns Hopkins University announced that the Walter Hines Page School of International Relations was to be discontinued. The title of "Director," now held by Owen Lattimore, will be abolished, but Mr. Lattimore will be continued as a "lecturer" in the university. He is now on leave on full pay, which will continue until the perjury indictment is disposed of.

The Page School, it should be noted, was the outgrowth of the activity of a distinguished fund-raising group in 1924. Mr. Lattimore became its director in 1938. He was then and continued to be the editor "Pacific Affairs," organ of the Institute of Pacific Relations.

Behind these simple announcements from the university lies the story of how one of the most remarkable figures of these times exploited his connection with a great and respected institution to serve purposes which, to say the least, should be regarded as of doubtful educational value.

Much of that story is vividly told in John T. Flynn's new book, "The Lattimore Story." It is an account of unbelievable activity and influence of Mr. Lattimore in and out of the Institute of Pacific Relations, in and out of government service, and, regrettably, always with the name of a great university to grace his authority and influence.

If every sincere university administrator and professor and every trustee and contributor would read that story and ponder its meaning, I believe there would be less railing at the Congress of the United States and more heart searching and self-discipline in our institutions of higher learning.

It is irrelevant to consider here the guilt or innocence of Mr. Lattimore of the charges for which he is indicted. The trial, now set for October, is where that issue should be and will be resolved.

But it is relevant to comment upon the significance of Mr. Lattimore as an administrator and professional carrying on the extramural activities which marked his career over a period of many years.

Those activities, on the background of his position in the university, should once and for all refute the claim that it is none of a university's business what a member of its community does outside.

Remember, Mr. Lattimore was not a mere footloose teacher. He was an administrative officer. As such, he was presumably able to determine the policies of the Paige School, the people who taught or did research in it, and to a degree what they taught or "researched."

He was by his own confession not a searcher for truth. He was a propagandist.

News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO — It was Tuesday, April 27, 1943.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters disclosed American and Australian troops were in command of hills overlooking Mubo village only 12 miles south of the big Japanese base at Salamaua, New Guinea, and Allied patrols had penetrated within six miles of the base itself.

Andy K. Dewar of Reeds, Minn., was chosen as the new Marion Country Club golf pro, succeeding William (Bill) Schimmel, who transferred to war work at the Universal Cooler.

Damage was in excess of $1 million after death-dealing tornadoes slashed through northeastern Ohio, killing three persons, injuring more than 150 other persons, and damaging nearly 2,000 homes and several war plants. The tornado damaged the apple storage plant on the Lawrence J. Seiler farm, one mile north of Mt. Victory.

Marion County went over the top in its Second War Loan campaign. The day's sales totaling $80,743.50 gave the county a total of $2,563,131.75 since the campaign started, $30,131.75 more than the county goal of $2,533,000.

Inside Labor

Testimonial Racket

By Victor Riesel

Want to make $50,000—clear, tax free?

Just get yourself a few friends to organize a committee. Have them hire a hall for a testimonial banquet and have one of them solicit advertising for a journal to be dumped on each table along with the pate de fois, hearts of celery and mixed salted nuts. On such a journal the profit can run up to $50,000, which can then be turned over to the guest of honor—tax free.

RIESEL

And it's all legal—as an increasing number of CIO and AFL officials have learned, much to the embarrassment and fury of their national leaders.

In the past three years, some 75 union officials have collected several hundreds of thousands of dollars for their personal use—tax free—through the growing evil of regular testimonial dinners and journals.

These "champions of the proletariat"—modestly and reluctantly, of course—have accepted these "tokens of esteem" from union members "grateful" for their leadership and from "cooperative" employers who have "contribued" totals ranging up to $50,000.

OUR PROLETARIAN heroes have pocketed the money under a tax free gimmick which I'll explain in a moment. They have accepted $35,000 homes, trips to Europe, high priced cars and other luxuries in return for breaking their manicured fingernails in behalf of their rank-and-file membership who part with $15 a ticket for these dinners.

It's a dirty, expanding evil. The money could go to labor's tubercular and cancer hospital in Los Angeles, the City of Hope.

It could go for scholarships for the children of members who just can't pay their way through college. Or for the adoption of war orphans of unionists abroad. It could be turned over to the CIO Community Services or the AFL's League for Human Rights.

Anywhere but into the pockets of the labor leaders who are disgracing the movement, like the "honored" guest who swayed up to the microphone, grinned and drunkenly said:

"What can I say? All I can say is—I deserve it."

Apparently that warm feeling

A committee of friends arranges the details. It peels off one of its members to solicit advertising from companies which employ members of the local union. The solicitor, who frequently makes a commission, says to the bosses, "Wouldn't you like to show your appreciation for the great work done by the union chiefs— at $250 a page in the journal?" The boss says yes—quickly.

THE RANK and file are then "permitted" to buy tickets at $30 a pair. Same reasoning. Come and be at a testimonial for the leader.

Crestline Coach Feted at Banquet

Special to The Star

CRESTLINE — Crestline High school's Coach Merle Hutson, whose resignation becomes effective in May, was honored at the testimonial and athletic banquet on Wednesday night at the American Legion Home here. Some 250 persons attended.

The event was arranged along a "This Is Your Life" television show theme, with Robert Capell acting as master of ceremonies. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hutson of Radner, O., the coach's parents, his first grade teacher, Lawrence Holcomb of Gibsonburg, O., Connie Clark, coach ot Toledo Woodward High School, "Suz" Sager, retired coach and athletic director at Heidelberg University, Tiffin, both of whom were Mr. Hutson's coaches, and three who became coaches under Hutson in Crestline, Al Pesic of Hiram College, Paul Keltner of Cambridge College and Richard Dickenson, the coach at Mt. Vernon Boys Academy, and Gib Stick of Toledo. Ted Turney, head coach at Heidelberg University, was also present.

The Rev. W. L. Margard, pastor of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, dedicated a memorial for the boys who were killed in service during Hutson's 20 years of coaching.

Sager gave the address of the evening. Short talks were given by the guests and by other Crestline coaches, school board members and teachers.

Coach Hutson presented letters to members of the football team and basketball squads, with Coach Dunkin making the reserve presentations.

A plaque was presented to Hutson by Gib Stick in behalf of the Crestline community.

Tom Prater was general chairman of the event.

There usually is no profit on the banquet itself. The journal nets the $35,000. Now, since this sum is made up of donations of less than $3,000 from each donor, it is tax free. That's right. It could total a million dollars and be tax free under Internal Revenue Form 709 for gifts.

To keep the full sum tax free each donation, each testimonial advertisement, must be under $3,000. This comes under a technicality called "exclusion", which is a Treasury Department ruling permitting anyone who donates up to $3,000 to deduct it from his income tax and anyone to accept such individual gifts without paying taxes on them. This was discovered for the union chiefs by a labor lawyer who got Treasury permission some years ago.

RESULT IS that in the past 24 months, one official got $22,000, another two took homes worth $35,000 apiece and a third $15,000.

But now the Treasury Department is becoming nettled by the practice. The penalty for willful evasion of this gift law is $10,000 and-or five years imprisonment.

Now how about testimonials without profit so that labor can continue the practice of honoring its real leaders without fear of being misunderstood?

Settlement of Real Estate Taxes Approved

The February settlement of real estate and inheritance tax collections for the first half of 1952 for Marion County has been approved by the state auditor, Marion County Auditor M. C. Clements reported today.

Real estate tax collections for this period amounted to $1,186,101.87 while inheritance taxes totaled $29,063.84.

The taxes will be ready for distribution Tuesday to the various taxing subdivisions, Clements said.

pervades one regional CIO Union which soon will be hit hard by Walter Reuther. In that local the committees of "friends" rotate the testimonial ritual of sliced prime sirloin and potato rissole. To date the president and three business agents have had such banquets tendered them.

THE BUSINESS agents, being lower in the caste system took home betwen $16,000 and $22,000. The president hit the jackpot for $32,000. And the next one is expected to bring $40,000 for the secretary-treasurer.

The president of the international organization with which this local is affiliated is a decent and, at the moment, sick man who deserves not to be pilloried by the naming of his union. He loathes the practice, but is helpless to stop his locals. It's legal, you see.

ANNOUNCEMENT of the engagement of Miss Virginia Eileen Fravel, to Karl M. Denison of Athens, is being made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Fravel of Green Valley Rd., Mt. Vernon. Mr. Denison is the son of Mrs. Bessie T. Denison of Findlay.

Miss Fravel, who makes her home at 196 S. High St. is a teacher at Edison Junior High School. She was graduated from the Mt. Vernon High School in 1947 and from the College of Wooster in 1951. Her fiance, a graduate of Findlay High School in 1945 and Ohio Northern University College of Pharmacy in 1950, is manager of the Gallaher Drug Store in Athens. He formerly resided in Marion and was assistant manager of the Gallaher store here.

A May Day breakfast and musical Friday morning at the home of Mrs. John F. Lacey on Windsor St. will entertain members of the Town and Country Unit of the Marion Garden Club. A meeting of the board at 9:15 o'clock will precede the general meeting at 10. Each member is asked to bring a May basket or other arrangement. Reservations are in charge of Mrs. Merle Hamilton and serving on the committee are Mrs. Morgan Burke, Mrs. E. N. Hale, Miss Maud Gorham and Miss Ruth Gorham.

Mrs. James Watts of Green Camp was hostess for a meeting of the Pleasant Garden Club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Gerald Rasey conducted the devotions and a memorial service was conducted by Mrs. W. Earl Thomas, Mrs. Ralph Williams and Mrs. Marion Craven, for two members, Mrs. W. H. Rasey and Mrs. Gail Smith, whose deaths occurred recently.

Mrs. Carl Baseler, president, presided, and for roll call the members named flowers being planted for the summer flower show, Aug. 1 and 2. A schedule for the show was read by Mrs. Baseler. The theme will be "Beautiful Ohio." The following replacement chairmen were announced: Mrs. Paul W. Augenstein, reporter; Mrs. Philip Daugherty, membership; Mrs. George Seiter, field trips; Miss Emma Leffler, social; Mrs. Leslie Bunnell, civic; Mrs. James Watts, scrapbook; Mrs. Carl Hoch, exchange. A contribution was made to the Easter Seal campaign. Mrs. Ray Dutt reported on Easter baskets taken to the County Home and it was voted to remember residents of the home with cards throughout the year.

Mrs. John Eichorn was enrolled as a new member and Mrs. Oliver Robertson was a guest.

MRS. LOREN N. HEISER

Miss Joyce Payne Becomes Bride Of Loren N. Heiser

A gown of white nylon tulle and satin was worn by Miss Joyce Ann Payne for her mariage to Loren N. Heiser Sunday, April 19, in the First Evangelical and Reformed Church. The afternoon ceremony was read at 2:30 o'clock by the pastor, the Rev. Paul Goebel.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Richard Shutt of Mansfield, has made her home with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Smith of 307 Blaine Ave. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heiser of 225 E. Fairground St.

Mr. Smith gave his niece in marriage. Lace motifs outlined the sheer yoke of the shirred bodice and were repeated on the full gathered skirt which swept into a chapel train. She wore a fingertip-length veil and carried her bridal bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis on a white Bible. Her single strand of pearls was a gift of the bridegroom and she wore the traditional blue garter. Her lace handkercihef was borrowed from her aunt, Mrs. R. W. Dickason.

Miss Sally McGinnis was the maid of honor and Miss Gay Payne a sister of the bride, and Sharon Rose Wolf were bridesmaids. Miss McGinnis' gown was of pink net over taffeta and the bridesmaids' gowns were of the same material in a nile green shade. They carried green feather fans with clusters of shattered carnations and wore flower arrangements in their hair. The flower girl was Irene Simmons, niece of the bridegroom, who carried a basket of Joyce Nelson, Miss Birdie Berl and Miss Sally Runyon.

When the couple left on a wedding trip the bride was wearing a gray wool boucle suit with yellow accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. They will make their home at 711 N. Z St., Pensacola, Fla.

The bride was graduated from Harding High School in 1952 and has been employed at the Sutton & Lightner Women's Wear Store. The bridegroom, a graduate of Harding High School in 1951 is with the U. S. Navy at Foley, Ala.

Guests were from Royal Oak, Mich., Oronton, Mansfield, Edison, Marysville, Plain City, Delaware, Ashley and Columbus.

Mrs. Shutt was hostess for the rehearsal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Miss Payne gave her attendants pearl necklaces and the candle lighters and flower girl summer bags and nylon gloves. The best man and ushers were presented tie clasps and key chains.

Weddings

Announcement is being made by Mr. and Mrs. William Weeks of 324 E. Center St. of the marriage in February of their daughter, Shirley Ann, and John D. Halbert. He is a son of Paul Halbert of Prospect and had made his home with his sister, Mrs. Joseph Heller, in Columbus after returning from three and a half years of service with the U. S. Armed forces in Germany.

The double ring wedding ceremony was read Feb. 28 at 7:30 p. m. by Jorn R. Longstreth, a justice of the peace, in his home at Richmond, Ind. Paul Cocherl and James Clunk of Marion were the couple's attendants. For her wedding, the bride wore a powder blue dress with navy accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations. She is a senior at Harding High School. Her husband is employed at the Hydraulic Press Mfg. Co. at Mt. Gilead. They are making their home at the E. Center St. address in Marion.

Report Steel Prices Hinge On Demand

CLEVELAND (AP)—Consumer demand will have a lot to do with steel price increases, Steel magazine predicted today.

Noting industry leaders have been "building up a case for a general increase," the metalworking journal said "an apparently insatiable demand of today can be sluggish less than a year hence."

As an illustration, the magazine pointed to the nonferrous metals market. In April, 1952, it said, the average price per pound was 18.72 cents for lead, 19.5 for zinc, and 121.5 for tin. Last week, the magazine continued, the price for lead was 11.8 cents, for zinc 11 cents, while tin sold for 95 cents.

"Immediate deterrents" to a steel price boost, the magazine asserted "are the public and government reaction to a general increase so soon after restoration of price freedom and the inflationary effect it would have on the approaching wage negotiations with the steelworkers' union.

Last week the industry produced steel for ingots and casting at 99.5 per cent of its rated capacity, a jump of 2.5 points.

Morrow County Second In School Expenditure

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD — Morrow County stands second in the state of Ohio in expenditure per pupil for new building construction according to County School Supt. T. A. Gantz. Although average taxable wealth places Morrow County in 76th place, only Cuyahoga exceeds them in new building construction.

The cost of operating schools in Morrow County averages $189.55 per pupil, which is 55th in the state, Gantz reports. Building outlay is $183.85 compared with $197.91 for Cuyahoga.

ROADMASTER
Custom built by Buick

JUST finger-tip pressure on the steering wheel lets her park and slow-maneuver with far less effort.

For Power Steering — standard equipment at no extra cost on every 1953 Buick ROADMASTER—gives her easy turning of the front wheels, even when this two-ton automobile is standing still.

Just a toe-touch on the gas pedal gives her dazzling getaway, or gentle cruising pace, or soaring power to glide easily up the long, steep hills.

For Twin-Turbine Dynaflow and the world's newest V8 Engine give her a combination of quick, quiet getaway and infinite smoothness that no other car in the world can equal.

She can gentle this big, beautiful bundle of high-powered energy to a swift, sure halt with merely light pressure on the brake pedal — for Power Brakes reduce needed pedal pressure by 50%.*

She can replace summer's humid heat with refreshingly cool air by a flip of a switch— for Buick Airconditioning circulates up to 300 cubic feet of cooled, dustless, filtered, draft-free air per minute.

Actually, the wonders — and the thrills — never seem to cease as you drive this superb ROADMASTER — the greatest Buick in fifty great years.

We'd like both the Mr. and the Mrs. to see it, try it, judge it. Why not drop in this week?

Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster and Super models only.*

Six Injured In Week-End Auto Mishaps

Four Hurt in 2-Car Collision at Olney And West Church

Six persons, two of them pedestrians, were injured in three of 10 week-end traffic accidents reported today by Marion police.

A collision at Olney Ave. and W. Church St. at 4:41 p.m. Saturday resulted in injuries to four persons and the upsetting of one of the cars.

Most seriously injured was Mrs. Harry Kline of Prospect who was taken to Marion City Hospital with a broken right arm, a deep cut on her head and bruises on her face and body. She is reported "in fairly good" condition at the hospital today. Her husband was also injured slightly, but required no treatment.

Injured in the other car involved in the accident were Mrs. Margean McClelland and her 5-year-old daughter, Jessica, both of Bloomville. Both were treated at the hospital and released. Mrs. McClelland received bruises and her daughter a cut lip.

The accident occurred when cars driven by Mrs. McClelland and Kline collided at the intersection. Mrs. Kline was driving north on Olney Ave. and her car struck the right side of Kline's car which was eastbound on W. Church St.. Police said the force of the collision turned Kline's car over in the street. Both cars were badly damaged.

Girl, 13, Injured

A 13-year-old girl, Mary Brown of 598 Catherine Ave., was sent to the hospital after she walked into the side of a car in the 900 block on N. Main St. at 10:36 a.m. Sunday. The driver of the car, Harriet M. Wolfinger of near Marion told police she was driving northbound on N. Main St. at about 15 miles an hour and the girl walked from behind a parked car into the right side of her car.

Taken to City Hospital in a Gunder Ambulance, the girl is reported in "fair" condition today with a cut hand and bruises of her head and body.

Another pedestrian, Mrs. Dorothy Prater of 359 Pearl St. received a sprained wrist when struck by a car dirven by Irey Wililams Jr., 22, of 554 Henry St. at E. Church and S. State Sts. at 7:14 p.m. Sunday. She was treated for her injuries at the hospital but not admitted. Williams was westbound on E. Church St. and Mrs. Prater was walking north across E. Church St.

Rotarians Collect Half-Ton of Clothes For Refugees

An estimated one-half to three-fourths ton of clothing was collected Saturday by the Marion Rotary Club in a clothing drive which will benefit the people of Holland and refugees of the Russian zone of Germany who are moving to the American zone.

The drive is a program of the International Rotary and similar drives are being carried on all over the world.

Ralph Howard, chairman of the drive, said the drive went over "very well" with not only Rotary members but their neighbors and friends as well responding.

All types of clothing were received.

Six Rotary members worked allday Saturday visiting the various homes to collect the clothing, and they continued work Sunday to pack and box the clothing for shipment to New York. The packing is expected to be completed Tuesday, Mr. Howard said.

The packing is being done at the Howard home where the clothing was taken following the collection.

Other members of the drive committee in addition to Howard are George Howser, William Charle, Marion McDaniel, Stewart Norris and Jay H. Maish Jr.

House Orators Sound Off On "Fast Time"

WASHINGTON (AP)—Today is the day when the House makes its annual stand in defense of the sleeping habits of the cows and chickens.

At issue is the desire of voteless citizens of the District of Columbia to get up an hour earlier this summer.

Daylight saving time began at 2 a. m. yesterday for an estimated 60 million Americans.

But not in the nation's capital, where Congress acts as a city council. It's still Eastern Standard Time here.

The Senate already has passed a bill authorizing the District commissioners to move Washington's clocks ahead an hour. But the House didn't get around to debating it until today.

When all the oratorical shooting is over, Congress probably will approve—as it always has—the right of the District to go on fast time if it wants to.

But not before the champions of the barnyard take advantage of the annual April whingding to get

3 Injured In Accident At Norton

Boy, 3, Mother And Passenger in 2nd Auto Cut in Collision

A two-car crash at the intersection of Routes 23 and 229 at Norton Saturday night sent three persons to Marion City Hospital, according to the state highway patrol report.

Clyde Smith, 3, of near Fredericktown, is in "good" condition today at the hospital after suffering a severe laceration of the head.

His mother, Mrs. Dorothy Smith, 21, of Fredericktown, received a sprained right ankle and chin laceration, and a passenger in a second auto, Mrs. Mildred Howald, 38, of near Waldo, suffered lacerations of the forehead, chin and right knee. They were both treated and released from the hospital.

The autos driven by Lawrence J. Howald, 44, of near Waldo, and Emory W. Smith, 34, of Fredericktown, collided at the intersection about 9:45 p.m. Saturday. State highway patrolmen said Smith failed to stop at the stop sign on Route 229 at the junction of Route 23. He was cited to appear before Delaware Mayor M. F. Pinney Tuesday. Damage to both cars was described as extensive.

In other accidents investigated by the Marion patrol post over the week end, four youths were taken to Galion City Hospital by a passing motorist after their car veered off the left side of a Crawford County road and crashed into a tree Sunday night.

Raymond Bilger Jr., 19, of near Caledonia, driver of the car, suffered a lacerated right knee and right eyelid; passengers, Delmar Smith, 12, of Martel, laceration of the left wrist, several teeth knocked out; Bobby Smith, 9, of Martel,

Rain Again Washes Out Auto Races

Opening Rescheduled For Next Sunday At Marion Speedway

Rain played havoc for the third week in a row with stock car racing at the Marion Speedway, as Promoter Cecil Addams called off yesterday's races, despite a large group of cars which had turned out for the races. Heavy and continuous rain most of the day made driving hazardous.

Twenty - five drivers brought their cars to the track, and all of them tested the ⅜ths mile runway. All were ready to qualify when more rain came and forced postponement. In addition, at least 20 other drivers phoned yesterday to find out conditions at the track before making a long trip to Marion from points such as Cleveland, Toledo, Findlay and Fostoria.

Drivers who did make an appearance yesterday included: Ray Walton of Wooster, Frank Yonikus of Bucyrus, Vern Meyers of Fremont, Red Jevons of Vermillion, and Floyd Lamb of Kenton.

Marion drivers who turned out for a few spins around the track included: Dick and Dude Grice, Bill Khromer, Bob Hinton, Glenn McKnight, Floyd McKnight, Harold England, Paul Hooper, Don Stevens, and Bill Collier. All these drivers and others will be back next Sunday as the local promoter tries to get this season's racing underway.

One of the big thrills for those who attended yesterday's rainout was the performance of Vernon Meyers of Fremont. He became the first member of the "Upside-Down Club," as he overturned his car, while taking a few practice

Govt. Security Chief Found Slain in Iran

Group of Retired Army Officers Are Blamed by Mossadegh

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Iran's government today blamed a group of retired Army officers and government opponents for the murder of National Police Chief Brig. Gen. Mahmood Afshartus, found strangled in a roadside grave yesterday.

A communique issued by Col. Hosseingholi Ashrafi, military governor of Tehran, said the names of the alleged slayers and those who plotted the crime would be disclosed later.

The communique said investigation and confessions of those responsible had led to the discovery of Afshartus' body six days after his mysterious disappearance in the heart of Tehran.

The body was found several miles northeast of the capital in a shallow grave. A rope was around his neck, his hands and feet were bound and his mouth was stuffed with handkerchiefs.

Medical examiners said he had died at least four days earlier, probably by strangulation April 20.

Afshartus, a relative of Premier Mohammed Mossadegh, was said to have made a number of enemies because of his part in recent political arrests and as secretary of a commission which named Army officers for retirement in a recent shakeup. A police communique said he "died a martyr's death in the performance of his duties."

The military governor named only one of those allegedly responsible for Afshartus' murder. He was Hossein Khatibi, to whose home, it was charged, Afshartus was invited just before he dropped from sight.

The invitation was accepted, the communique indicated, because Afshartus thought he was mediating between the Mossadegh regime and a Parliament member recently at odds with the Premier.

The communique said the plotters bound Afshartus, took him by car to a cave in the Toloe Mountains northeast of Tehran, tortured him by jabbing him in the chest with a knife and finally strangled him with a rope and handkerchiefs.

Woman Hurt In Collision

Mrs. Emma Vance, 61, of near Marion, is in "good" condition today at Marion City Hospital where she was hospitalized Saturday for head injuries sustained in an accident on Route 4 south of Marion about 3 p.m.

She was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Roland Vance, 70, of near Marion, which collided with a pick-up truck operated by Neason M. Reebel, 18, of near LaRue, the Sheriff's office reported.

The truck, heading north on Route 4, was making a left turn into the Sims Brothers junk yard, the sheriff's report indicated, while the Vance automobile was going south.

Extensive damage to both vehicles was reported.

Ohio Priest Among 3 To Be Freed by Reds

HONG KONG (AP) — It simply drove the Communists wild.

The Canadian bishop wrote years ago in a letter to another priest in China:

"N. D. bit the dust. Purdue took them after five years."

For that, Bishop O'Gara of Ottawa spent a week of round-the-clock questioning in a Red China "house for reformation.'

Freed, the ailing bishop today told in a hospital how that terse thought sent his captors into a frenzy.

The Passionist priest was arrested in his Yuan Ling Diocese in Central Hunan province in June, 1951. The Communists confronted him with the letter:

"Who is this bandit, N. D.?"

"Who is this man, Purdue?

"Don't hold anything back!"

The bishop, ill from a bladder infection and months of imprisonment, protested feebly—N. D. was only a university called Notre Dame which was defeated in a game called football by another university called Purdue.

"That's a lie," said the angry questioner.

"All you tell is lies. You had better tell the truth.

"Now — who is this bandit, N. D.?"

For a week they haggled to a stalemate—the Communist never was convinced.

Bishop O'Gara was expelled from Red China with Frs. Paul Ubinger, 59, of Pittsburgh and William Westhoven, 57, of Liberty Center, O.

All said they had been in prison

Survivors Of Crash Remain Unconscious

Condition Reported Critical in Bucyrus City Hospital

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — Conditions of four Lima residents, critically injured near here Saturday morning in a crash which took four lives, remain unchanged today in City Hospital.

The injured, Mrs. Kenneth Baum, 29, her sons, Wayne, 10, and Jack, 9, and her stepfather, Salvatore DaGastino, 64, all suffered skull fractures and have been unconscious since the accident.

Mrs. Baum also suffered deep lacerations of the head and both knees and a possible fracture of the left ankle. DaGastino has a deep head laceration; Wayne, a possible fractured leg; and Jack, severe facial lacerations and bruises, hospital attaches reported.

The dead are: Mrs. Baum's husband, Kenneth, 34; their daughter, Irma, 3½, and two Marines, Sgt. William J. Houck, 23, of Holgate and Cpl. Lea McTurnan, 24, of Parker, Ind., both stationed at LeJeune, N. C.

The accident occurred on Route 30-N, three miles east of Bucyrus, at 6:45 a.m. Saturday, when the Houck car skidded on the wet pavement into the path of the Bruno car. It is believed that Houck was enroute home on furlough while the Baums were enroute to Cleveland, where Mr. DaGastino had an appointment at the Italian consulate.

An unidentified truck driver notified nearby residents who called the Crawford County sheriff's office and Bucyrus funeral homes for ambulances. The Marion post of the state highway patrol also investigated the accident.

Sgt. Houck, driver of the one auto, was found sprawled near the open door of the car. His companion, Cpl. McTurnan, had been thrown about 15 feet by the impact and was lying in a roadside ditch. The doors of the other car were pryed open to free Baum and his five passengers.

The bodies of Baum and his daughter were removed to the Lewis Funeral Home in Lima; the body of Sgt. Houck to the Smith Funeral Home in Holgate and Cpl. McTurnan's body was taken to the Farrill Funeral Home at Fairmount, Ind.

A third pedestrian escaped injury when struck by a car driven by William B. Keller, 16, of 744 Gill Ave. at E. Center and State Sts. at 6:59 p.m. Saturday. The pedestrian, Mrs. George Bell of 120 N. State St., was walking north across E. Center St. and Keller was driving east. Although Mrs. Bell was not injured, the front headlight of Keller's car was damaged by the impact, police reported.

The remaining six accidents were all of the fender bender variety with no injuries reported.

A car driven by Alberta R. Brothers of 429 Avondale Ave. was damaged slightly in a collision with another car driven by Paul E. Cranston, 26 ,of 498 Scranton Ave. in the 500 block on Scranton Ave. at 6:58 p. m. Saturday. Cranston's car was not damaged.

The rear end of a car driven by Lawrence M. Collins, 41, of 446 Avondale Ave. was damaged when struck by a car driven by Hiram R. Caris, 55, of Martel in the 400 block on Silver St. at 5:32 p.m. Sautrday. Caris' car was not damaged.

Autos Collide

A collision at Mark and Main Sts. at 12:38 p.m. Saturday resulted in damage to cars driven by Clyde J. Davis, 26, of 206½ E. Mark St. and E. Beringer, 26, of near Marion. Beringer was traveling south on N. Main St. and Davis west on E. Mark St.

A car driven by Carroll B. Amrine, 54, of 324 Carner Ave. was damaged when struck by a Borden's Dairy truck driven by Jack L. Cooper, 28, of 419 S. Main St. at E. Columbia St. and the first alley west of S. State St. at 11:55 a.m. Saturday. Amrine was stopped and Cooper backed from the alley into the side of his car, he told police. The truck was not damaged.

A car driven by Hubert Buck Jr. of 805 Silver St. was also damaged by a Borden's Dairy truck in an accident in the 200 block on Cass Ave. at 9:53 a.m. Saturday. The driver of the truck, John E. Colegrove, 26, of 934 Henry St. was backing and struck the left rear side of Buck's car which was parked in front of 294 Cass Ave. The truck was not damaged.

A car driven by Kenneth R. Geyer, 26, of 215 N. State St. was slightly damaged when it struck a car parked in front of 127 Baker St. and owned by Clara E. Gosgrove of 555½ E. Church St. at 10:54 a.m. Saturday. Mrs. Cosgrove's car was not damaged.

RUNAWAYS PICKED UP

Three runaways from the Columbus State School were picked up by local state patrolmen about 1:30 p.m. Sunday on Route 23, Rollan L. Rider, 16, of Dayton; Fred Paul West, 20, of Cleveland, and John J. Nowak, 23, of Toledo, were taken into custody by patrolmen who found them hitchhiking, just north of Marion, Sunday afternoon. The Rider youth was taken to the Marion County Children's Home, while Nowak and West are being held at Marion County jail, pending word from School authorities.

on the good side of the farm folks back home by denouncing daylight time.

This year some 26 states with large rural populations remained on standard time. They take a dim view of daylight time on the indisputable grounds that milking and roosting habits aren't controlled by the clock.

Middle Western barnyards wouldn't be affected by a change in clocks here, but congressmen with rural constituents nonetheless denounce "fast time" on principle.

It probably will be at least several days before a daylight time bill becomes law in Washington. House and Senate versions differ, so further action probably will be necessary.

$3,500 Loss Results In Home Fire

City firemen battled a $3,500 blaze at the Carl Castle residence, 395 Lee St., for more than an hour Saturday.

At the time of the blaze, Castle, his wife and children were outside, working in the garden. A passing neighbor noticed smoke coming from the upstairs of the house and notified the Castles. Fire engines from the W. Center St. and Central stations were summoned at 6:37 p.m.

Apparently defective wiring in an upstairs bedroom caused the fire, which spread rapidly through a window and onto the roof. The bedroom and its contents are a total loss and heat from the blaze blistered and smudged other upstairs rooms.

Engines from the Central and W. Center St. stations were called to the home of Mrs. June Harris, 688 Hocking St., at 2 a.m. Sunday morning when someone reported smelling smoke. Firemen were unable to find a fire.

Pre-School Clinics Begin in Marion

First of the annual pre-school clinics were held in Marion today with 93 children examined at Greenwood and Oak St. Schools.

Examinations Tuesday will be held at Pearl St., N. Main St., and Olney Ave. schools. Doctors will be C. W. Wilson, R. E. Logsdon, and O. G. Stephenson at N Main St. School; R. L. Morgan James S. Greetham, and W. Neil Price at Olney Ave. School; and M. K. Marshall, Philip Smith, J. L. Plymale, M. R. Swisher and H. J Bohrman at Olney.

possible fractured upper jaw; Elmer Smith, 12, of Martel; laceration of the head and lower lip.

The mishap occurred about 6:55 p.m. Sunday on a county road just north of the Marion - Crawford County line and two miles west of Route 100. The auto was demolished.

Peter L. Cooper, 18, of Mt. Gilead, suffered a laceration over his left eye, but was not treated, when his auto veered left off Route 95 two miles west of Route 314 in Morrow County, and overturned Sunday at 11 p.m. The car was demolished.

In another accident Saturday, cars driven by Paul B. Miller, 34, of Norfolk, Va., and Yida D. Nauman, 27, of Delaware, sideswiped on Route 23, just north of Waldo. Minor damage to the southbound Miller car and the northbound Nauman auto was reported. Miller was fined $15 and costs in Marion Municipal Court on a charge of driving to the left of the center of the highway.

Robert C. Cottrill, 19, of 672 Silver St., Marion, was arrested on a charge of driving without a license, and Ashford Puckett, 33, of Pinkmey, Mich., was arrested on a charge of passing at an intersection, Saturday at 6:08 p.m. on Route 23, south of Marion, when their cars were involved in a collision. The Cottrill car, which was making a right turn, was struck on the left side when the Puckett car attempted to pass. Damage to the Puckett car was to the right front fender, headlight, bumper and grille, while the left front fender and grille of the Cottrill car received minor damage. Cottrill was cited to appear in Marion Municipal Court May 2. Puckett posted bond for his appearance in Municipal Court Tuesday.

Edington Released From City Hospital

Howard Earl Edington, 23, stabbing victim charged with breaking and entering and attempting rape, was released from the Marion City Hospital about 1 p.m. Sunday.

Edington had been confined to the hospital since he was discovered covered with blood and slumped over in his car illegally parked on N. Main St. early Easter Sunday.

Edington was stabbed by the 17-year-old wife of Robert A. Lovell of 974 Bryant St. when he broke into her residence and attempted to rape her, according to charges filed in Marion Municipal Court by Lovell.

A 24-hour a day police guard posted over Edington at the hospital was removed Friday after his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Edington of 358 Milburn Ave. posted a $2,000 bond to guarantee his appearance at an arraignment on the two charges in Municipal Court. Tentative date for the hearing, dependent on Edington's condition, is May 26.

Loss Set $100,000 In Columbus Fire

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Fire swept a state liquor store and a chicken carryout store in north Columbus today, causing damage that may run to $100,000.

Two firemen were treated at White Cross Hospital for injuries. Ten others received oxygen on the scene after being overcome by smoke.

Most of the anticipated loss came from 500 cases of whisky, gin and rum in the liquor store at 2659 N. High St. Damage of several hundred dollars was reported at the Flying Chicken, 2657 N. High St.

Firemen said they believed the fire started under gas ranges in the chicken store.

Dulles Returns From Paris

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles returns from Paris today to seek vital financial support from Congress for a slowed-down European defense program.

This may prove to be a formidable task—not only because of the cost-cutting temper of Congress but also because of indications the defense buildup may henceforth go even slower than Dulles himself has advocated.

The secretary was due to report promptly to President Eisenhower on the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council meeting which he and other top U. S. officials attended.

Soviet Peace Move Tricky, British Warn

LONDON (AP) — Leading British newspapers took the view today Russia's latest offer of talks to settle outstanding world troubles may hold booby traps, but nevertheless urged the West to explore the offer without delay.

Pravda, official newspaper of the Communist party, published a long statement Saturday replying to President Eisenhower's foreign policy speech of April 16. Although the statement showed no sign of a retreat of as much as an inch from any Soviet position, it nevertheless declared readiness to enter into "business like" discussions.

In effect, it appeared to toss the ball back to the West for the next play.

Communist Hungary today followed up the Pravda statement with a reply of its own to President Eisenhower. An editorial in Szabad Nep, official Budapest newspaper of the Hungarian Communist party, like the Pravda statement, was notably even-tempered.

7 Drivers Arrested By Marion Police

Seven traffic arrests made over the week end were reported today by Marion police.

Persons arrested and the charges filed against them were as follows: Harley K. Fisher, 35, of 150 John St., reckless driving; John P. Blanton, 31, of 787 Gill Ave., reckless driving; Gerald H. Woodward, 29, of Elkton, Mr., passing in a no passing zone; R. M. Thomas, 28, of Toledo, passing in a no passing zone; R. B. Leese, 29, of Vandalia, passing in a no passing zone; Elbert Dalton, 27, of Bainbridge, failure to register a motor vehicle; and Homer L. Dixon, 54, of near Marion, reckless driving.

"I think it is far too early to come to any definite conclusion on a matter of that kind," Harrison said. He added that no one can reasonably expect negotiations, where two sides are far apart, to give any clear indications at the start.

Harrison opened the meeting by telling North Korean Gen. Nam Il that a six-point proposal by Nam Sunday was "unreasonable and obstructive."

He later said bluntly that the proposal was "unacceptable" and that the Communists "have proposed nothing which we can consider as either a reasonable or constructive basis for an armistice agreement."

Nam devoted his remarks to a restatement of the Communist proposal.

It calls for:

1. Within two months after an armistice, repatriating those prisoners who want to go home.

2. Within another month, sending to a neutral state, to be chosen by the negotiators, all who refuse to go home.

3. Six months for making "explanations" to the refusing prisoners by representatives of their homelands.

4. Sending home those who change their minds.

5. If there are still some left, who refuse repatriation, leaving their fate up to a high-level post-armistice political conference.

6. All expenses of prisoners held in a neutral state to be paid by their homelands.

To this plan, Harrison said:

"It is a proposal for their (the prisoners) indefinite retention. Many of these men have been held in custody unnecessarily for nearly two years as a result of the unwillingness of your side to recognize their attitude. . . . These captured personnel have the right to be released from custody as soon after an armistice as is practicable."

Harrison continued:

"Does your proposal drag on the captivity of the captured personnel endlessly or until that day, when exhausted and discouraged, they are forced to accept the fact that there is no alternative to endless captivity?"

At the outset Harrison berated Nam for the Communist refusal to accept the Allied plan to make Switzerland the neutral state which would take custody of balking prisoners while still keeping them in Korea.

"You implied," Harrison said, "that we nominated Switzerland in order that it would represent our side alone rather than to serve in the role of a true neutral. Your argument . . . is groundless."

CALL OFF STRIKE

DAYTON, O. (AP) — A scheduled strike of guards at the Monsanto Chemical Co.'s Mound Atomic Energy Commission plant was called off Sunday.

Plate Road and Brotherhood of Railroad trainmen reached agreement today in a dispute that twice in the past month was within eight hours of becoming a strike.

The settlement followed a 15-hour negotiation session in which W. E. B. Chase of Detroit, trainmen's vice president, represented the union, and J. C. Wallace, Nickel Plate Road vice president, the carrier. Working rules, time claims and grievances in dispute since last July were at issue.

Chase said the settlement "permanently cancelled" strike action which was held off only six hours before last Saturday morning's deadline because of a court order and appointment of a presidential

Peace Feelers

By George Sokolsky

Peace feelers may be designed to discover if the adversary is receptive, or they may be designed for propaganda purposes to weaken unity among other nations. Peace feelers are unnecessary if nations have honorable purposes, as they can make their intentions known through the ordinary channels of diplomatic communications.

SOKOLSKY

Actually, Soviet Russia is represented at the capitals of the great powers by ambassadors who can speak to the head of each state directly. Also, Russia is fully represented at the United Nations where its emissaries often speak too long and too often.

Therefore, the indirect peace feeler is an unnecessary device if the intent is to accomplish peace.

PRESIDENT Eisenhower has taken a more direct route to peace, namely, he has stated the maximum American terms in clear language.

It cannot be assumed that Russia will accept the maximum American position; therefore, it is to be expected that on May 1, the day of revolutionary celebration, either Malenkov or Molotov will state Russia's maximum terms.

If that happens, a conference will undoubtedly be arranged, perhaps of foreign ministers, that is, Dulles, Eden and Molotov, or it might include the representatives of other countries, to see whether a common basis may be found.

President Eisenhower's maximum terms for peace are just. His speech on the subject was a magnificent state paper of the highest order. Should it become the basis for discussion for peace, the greatest progress in the direction of peace will have been made since 1943.

At the Teheran (1943) and Yalta (1945) conferences, the basis was war, not peace.

If the Russians realy mean peace, they are not under any compulsion to accept President Eisenhower's terms as stated; they do have a moral obligation to bargain on the basis of his terms or to state their own.

PEACE IS NOT readily attainable in the complexities of an armed world. But if peace is desired, a contractual basis can be found. In other periods in human history, ways to peace have been found.

During the 19th century, such including a practical system of inspection under the United Nations . . .

2 — "Any nation's right to a form of government and an economic system of its own choosing is inalienable.

"Any nation's attempt to dictate to other nations their form of government is indefensible."

POINT TWO involves definite violations of the Yalta and Potsdam Agreements, which provided for democratic elections under supervision of the Allied powers in those countries which are now known as satellites.

That would, in effect, open Poland, Rumania, Bulgaria, Hungary, and perhaps Czechoslovakia and Albania to a new election, under the supervision either of the signatories to the Yalta Agreement or the United Nations.

The effect of that could be that Russia could lose one or more of these satellites. It might change the political map of Europe.

It is impossible to believe that Russia will agree to such terms short of all-out war. Yet, it would be unbelievable that Gen. Eisenhower would ask for less in any statement of his maximum terms.

AS REGARDS his demand for "a practical system of inspection under the United Nations," this is a reiteration of the Baruch proposal concerning the atom bomb and is absolutely sound.

Any retreat from such inspection would vitiate the entire program. No nation can be trusted in the present circumstances of an armed world, to police itself, particularly with regard to a disarmament program.

After World War I, Germany was disarmed; yet Hitler built an effective army, stockpiled for a six-year war. After the Washington Conference (1922), Japan was supposed to reduce her fleet to a ration of 5-5-3. Actually Japan built a secret fleet which proved to be effective for a time in World War II.

Inspection is an essential instrument of world peace and the President was wise in restating it in his terms.

Ike Answers Reuther On Unemployment

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, in a letter to CIO President Walter Reuther, has pledged every useful step against "the stupidity of mass unemployment."

The letter, in reply to one Reuther wrote the President April 6, was hailed by the CIO News Saturday as "a clear outline for a liberal economic philosophy."

Reuther, on an ABC television show last night, said he disagrees with United Mine Workers President John L. Lewis' contention that Congress should repeal all labor relations laws of the past 21 years.

Such action, Reuther said, "would return to the law of the jungle"—the same phrase Senate Republican Leader Taft of Ohio used last week when Lewis made his suggestion.

34 Ohioans Die In Week-End Accidents

By The Associated Press

Thirty-four persons were killed in accidents in Ohio during the weekend — the worst toll so far this year.

Spring weather sent thousands onto highways. Traffic accidents killed 31. Three persons drowned.

Twenty persons were killed Saturday, 17 in trafic accidents, to set a record for a single day in the state this year. The State Highway Patrol said wet roads were partly to blame for 13 more fatal accidents Sunday. One was killed Friday night.

Deaths Sunday:

Forest Hudson, near Clarksburg, his car hit a bridge near Frankfort, Ross County.

Crate Johnson, 25, Dayton his car overturned on Ohio 725 east of Gratis, Preble County.

Orville C. Rike, 21, and James D. Quillen, 22, both of Dayton, two-car crash on Ohio 48 north of Dayton.

Mrs. June Rogers, 48, Columbia Station, and her granddaughter, Sharon Stringer, 2, head-on car-truck collision on U. S. 20 west of Fremont.

William Klaus, 20, and Jakob Wasza, 21, both of Chicago, and Mrs. Marian Silliman, 59, Lakewood, O., car-truck collision on U. S. 6 west of Bowling Green.

Gerald Stultz, 19, and his wife, Dolores, 17, car-truck collision on U. S. 24 east of Antwerp.

Miss Emma Clark, 26, Columbus, car left Ohio 104 in Pickaway County.

An elderly, unidenitfied pedestrian, hit by a car in Hartwell, near Cincinnati.

Eight Miles of Roads Added to Crawford Co.

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — More than eight miles of township roads in Crawford County have been added to the county highway system under provisions of a resolution passed here by county commissioners.

Petitions for annexation of the roads by the county were approved by landowners located on the roads and by the trustees of the townships involved, commissioners pointed out.

The roads include Lemert Road 29, located in Holmes Township; Chatfield Center Road 35 in Chatfield Township, Carey Road 27 in Lykens and Chatfie'd Townships.

statesmen as Talleyrand, Stein, Bismarck and even Castlereagh sought peace and found it for 99 years.

If we can, in this generation, find 99 years of peace, or even 50 years of peace, it will be a godsend. In terms of international relations, peace means an avoidance of any general war; it means a period during which such wars as occur are limited.

The Russians will undoubtedly object most to two points in Eisenhower's speech:

1 — "The enforcement of all these agreed limitations and prohibitions by adequate safeguards,

Through Life Insurance — now owned by 88 million men, women and children

The first job of life insurance is to protect the family from the loss of the breadwinner's earnings. It provides financial protection for a man's family—and himself.

But, moneywise, life insurance does another thing that is important. It is America's most widely used form of thrift.

Today 88 million people are putting aside money for future delivery to their families and themselves, through their life insurance. And they are doing it on a regular, systematic way which is a fundamental part of thrift.

Today there are policyholders in 3 out of 4 families. These families, on the average, are protected by more than five policies apiece.

People tend to add to their life insurance —and therefore their program of thrift— as their income or needs increase.

So universal has the use of life insurance become that today it is an integral part of family thinking and family planning.

Delay Blamed on Politics and Self-Interest

Now They Hope Ohio Will Have Its Turnpike by Late 1955

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Few, if any, projects in Ohio history have had as rough a road to travel as the Northern Ohio Turnpike. The idea has been kicked around publicly for seven years and the toll road still is not built. This three - part series is intended as a fill-in for the reader who got lost somewhere along the campaign route.)

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Back in the spring of 1951 a state highway department engineer said flatly the proposed Northern Ohio Turnpike couldn't possibly be completed before the autumn of 1953.

He wasn't, as teen - agers are wont to say, just beating his gums.

The autumn of 1953 is only six months away. Scarcely a spadeful of earth has been turned.

Now turnpike officials are talking, wistfully, of maybe getting traffic on the 241 - mile, 326 million dollar superhighway by late 1955.

In view of the fact Gov. Frank J. Lausche signed the Ohio turnpike act June 1, 1949, many a Northern Ohioan, untutored in the ways of legal obstructions, is asking, "Why?"

Friends of the turnpike will tell you the answer is simple. Politics and self - interest have brought about the long delay, they declare.

Some of those who forced the delays disagree. They insist the delays were necessary to protect the public interest. They point out the handling of public money is a public trust which is not to be taken lightly, that 326 million dollars is a lot of money even today.

An unbiased view of the turnpike fight from its beginning to the present lies somewhere between those expressions of opinion.

The story is a little long.

So today we'll review the early whys and wherefores of the turnpike law; then we'll look at the battles the turnpike act and the turnpike commission have survived, and later we'll haul out the crystal ball.

The "father" of the Ohio Turnpike got the glimmer in his eye about 1938 when the famed Pennsylvania Turnpike was opened.

He is Ralph A. Winter of Leroy (Medina County). At the time he was in the securities business. He drove all over Ohio in his business. He got desperately tired of traffic delays. He figured a lot of people felt the same way.

Winter handled a lot of Pennsylvania Turnpike securities. An Ohio Turnpike across the heavily populated northern part of the state would solve many problems. But he did nothing about his idea for seven years — except think about it. He was going to law school at night in those days. When he was admitted to the bar, he ran for the Ohio Senate on the Republican ticket and was elected.

Toward the end of his first session in 1945, Sen. Winter started some cautious talk about an Ohio Turnpike. The following year, he got Gov. Lausche interested, but that was the year Lausche was beaten in his re-election race by Republican Thomas J. Herbert.

Herbert took no position on the turnpike proposal.

Winter introduced his turnpike bill in the 97th General Assembly which met in January, 1947. It bounced through the Senate, but got hung up permanently in an unfriendly Republican House.

Winter tried again in the 98th General Assembly in 1949. This time he was a Republican in a Democratic-controlled Senate. but he got the support of Sen. William Boyd, influential Cleveland Democrat. Again the Senate went for the turnpike proposal like a ton of bricks.

Then, in a surprising move, friends of the turnpike forced the bill through the House by a narrow squeak, the Senate accepted House amendments quickly and Gov. Lausche—back in the Capitol once more—signed the bill before opponents could move for reconsideration.

That was June 1, 1949. The turnpike law became effective Sept. 1 of that year. Lausche promptly named the four-member turnpike commission.

The fight was over, the battle won. That's the way it looked in the autumn of 1949.

That was only the beginning of tuous years ahead, the fact that turnpike roadblocks could be thrown up by such widely divergent personalities as Joseph T. Ferguson, Ohio auditor, and Joseph Stalin, Russian dictator.

No one could foresee the tumulyearsahead,thefactthat

Nor did anyone, then, profess to see a near-fatal defect in the law itself.

Pfc. Robert Kale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Kale of Richwood recently arrived at the Engineer Replacement Training Center, Fort Belvoir, Virginia. There he is undergoing 16 weeks of basic training to qualify as a soldier of the Corps of Engineers. At the close of the training period, most men will be assigned to units of the Army either overseas or in the United States. However, men with special skills may be selected for advanced specialists courses, and those who show leadership ability may be chosen for further training to qualify them as future noncommissioned officers.

Pvt. Ralph Flinchbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Flinchbaugh of 504 Blaine Ave., is now serving in Korea with the Army Medical Corps. He has been overseas since March. Pvt. Flinchbaugh was graduated from Harding High School in 1950 and was employed by the General Excavator Co. before entering the service in October of 1952. He received his basic training at Camp Pickett, Va.

Charles J. Buyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oris L. Buyer of near LaRue, recently reported to the U. S. Naval Auxiliary Air Station at Saufley Field, Pensacola, Fla., for formation flying training, the Navy reported today. Cadet Buyer graduated from LaRue High School in 1949 and entered the Navy in January, 1951.

George D. Rowlinson, aviation machinist's mate airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Rowlinson of Bucyrus, is stationed at Kingsville, Texas, the home of Naval Air Jet Training and training center for many of this country's Navy fighter pilots. The U.S. Naval Auxiliary Air Station is located in Southern Texas, a few miles inland from the Gulf of Mexico, and trains pilots in jet trainers, Bearcat and Hellcat fighters, and the TBM torpedo bombers.

Sgt. Ray W. Farley, son of Mrs. Mary E. Farley of Ashley is now serving in Germany with the 43d Infantry Division. Stationed in southern Germany, the 43d is undergoing constant field training as part of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Army. A platoon sergeant in Company H of the 102d Infantry Regiment, Farley entered the Army in September 1947. He holds the Army of Occupation Medal for service in Germany. His wife, Jackie, is with him in Germany.

William R. Scott, airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brunn of near Mt. Gilead, recently reported for duty to the attack carrier USS Wasp at the Naval Shipyard in Brooklyn, N. Y. Before entering the Navy in June, 1952, he attended Johnsville High School.

8 Children Die In Ontario Fire

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont. (AP)—Eight children—five in one family and three in another—perished in a week-end fire here.

Investigators said seven of the eight child victims apparently were trapped while sleeping in one bed. Their charred bodies were found in the bed. The eighth was recovered between the bed and a door.

Five of the eight were children of Philip and Winifred Derry, who sufered severe burns in a futile rescue attempt. They were Dorothy, 7; Reginald, 5; Clifford, 4; Eleanor, 3, and John, 1½.

The other three, cousins of the Derry children, were children of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trudell: Wilma, 14; Marion, 10, and Diane, 9.

Wilma had been baby sitting for the Derrys and Marion and Diane went with her. They were staying overnight.

Derry told Ontario provincial police he got up during the night and put wood in a kitchen range. He and his wife were awakened by the fire several hours later, he said.

After fleeing through a window, the parents realized the plight of the children and attempted to reenter the house. But it was engulfed in flames by then.

Robs Western Union Office in Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — The strange man in the Western Union branch office carefully selected a telegram last night. It read: "Happy birthday and many more."

Then he wrote a Chicago address on it and handed the greeting to the night manager, Mrs. Betty F. Janice, 46. That done, he walked through the swinging gate and leveled a gun at the cashier, Mrs. Lois Newcomer, 24.

Detectives estimated today he got away with $2,000. The company said it wasn't that much.

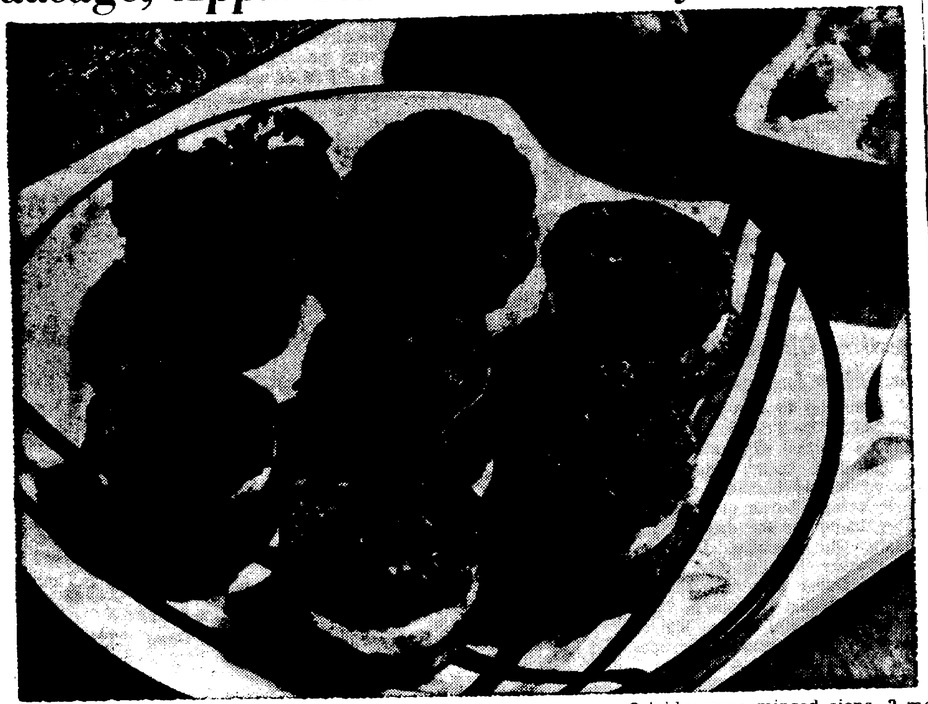
Sausage, Apple Stacks Make Tasty Snacks



There's nothing better than sausage and apples and this combination is at its best when arranged sandwich fashion with a slice of apple between the sausage patties. Another variation on the general theme is the use of part beef and part sausage with whole wheat shreds to bind the mixture.

SAUSAGE AND APPLE STACKS

Ingredients: 1½ cups whole wheat shreds, ½ cup milk, 1 egg, slightly beaten, ½ lb. ground raw beef, ½ lb. bulk pork sausage, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons minced oions, 2 medium apples.

Method: Combine whole wheat shreds, milk and eggs; let stand until most of moisture is taken up. Add meats, seasonings and onions; mix thoroughly. Divide mixture into 12 equal portions and form into thin patties.

Pare, core and slice apples crosswise. Place apple slices between two patties and press together. Arrange in shallow pan. Bake in moderate oven (375F. 30-35 minutes or until meat is done and apple is tender. Yields 6 servings.

CIRCLE LUNCHEON HELD

A dessert luncheon preceded the business and program meeting of Circle No. 4, WSCS, of Epworth Methodist Church Thursday at the home of Mrs. Roy Holdridge on the Bosley Rd. Guests were Mrs. Albert E. Dietrich of Pittsburgh and Mrs. R. T. Thew. Mrs. A. J. Loudenslager was in charge of the luncheon assisted by a committee composed of Mrs. James H. Ralston, Mrs. W. O. Nippert and Mrs. H. G. Greenfield. Mrs. Earl E. Thomas conducted the devotions and Mrs. J. D. Williamson, president, presided. For the program Mrs. Lester Stewart gave a paper, "New Women of East Asia." The group will close the season with a picnic May 28 at the home of Mrs. Forest Loudenslager.

Fleet Service Enters Low Bid on Trucks

Offers To Supply 4 For Garbage Dept. At $6,789 Each

Low bid for supplying Marion with new enclosed garbage trucks was submitted by the Fleet Service Garage on W. Church St. with a unit price of $6,789.35, Safety-Service Director Ralph Forrest announced today.

This was some $112 below the next lowest bid according to tabulations of a total of five bids received before the closing deadline at noon April 14, he said.

These bids marked the third time since Feb. 14 that the city attempted to obtain satisfactory price quotations for the new garbage trucks.

The first time a total of five bids were received with prices ranging from a total low of some $29,400 to a high of about $32,680 for supplying four complete units. Those bids were submitted separately for supplying the truck chassis and the automatic packer type bodies. They were later rejected because of "too wide a range in the high and low prices" which suggested inaccuracy by some of the bidders, Forrest said.

The second time, six bids were received with a low of $32,284 for supplying five truck chassis with the enclosed packer type bodies installed on them. Highest bid of the six was $47,399. These bids were also rejected later, this time because of "inconsistencies" in the bidding, Forrest said.

Multiplying the low unit bid announced today by four reveals the total price of $27,157 is some $2,243 below the low on the first set of bids received on Feb. 14. However, if multiplied by five the total of $33,946 is some $1,662 higher than the total low bid for five units received on March 9.

In announcing the tabulations of the latest set of bids and the low bidder, Forrest said all five bids were satisfactorily submitted.

A list of all the bids will be submitted tonight to City Council with a recommendation that a contract for purchase of four new enclosed automatic packer type garbage trucks be awarded the Fleet Service Garage, Forrest said.

Other firms which submitted bids before the April 14 deadline and the per unit price quotations were as follows: The Danner Buick Co., $6,901.55; Short-Ford, Inc., $6,958; B and W Garage, $8,630.75; and, the Smith Motor Sales, $6,959.47.

Donates to Building Fund

Sorority Gives $850 to YMCA

A SECOND CHECK PRESENTED TO THE NEW YMCA Building Fund brings the contribution of the Alpha Chapter, Gradale Sorority to $850. The presentation was made at the recent mother-daughter dinner held at the Y. Presenting the check to A. W. Kette, president of the Y Board, is Mrs. Harold Henry, treasurer and president-elect of the chapter. Standing at the extreme left is Mrs. Robert McCombs, and to the right of Mr. Kette are Mrs. William Shipley, financial chairman and Mrs. Robert Romoser, welfare chairman. Seated at the table are left to right: Mrs. Paul McClenathan, Mrs. E. K. Reed, Miss Arlene Houpt; Mrs. Ed Long, Mrs. Vincent Wise, Mrs. Richard Moore; Mrs. Charles Iams, Mrs. Richard Knight, Miss Catherine Watson; Miss Marilyn Guy, Mrs. Virginia Safran, Mrs. Walter Corrigan, Mrs. Arthur Hindle, Mrs. Howard Cary.

Funds raised by members of Alpha Chapter, Gradale Sorority will be used in equipping the women and girls secretary's office in the new YMCA building.

A check presented to A. W. Kette the president of the YMCA Board, at a mother-daughter dinner recently in the women's clubrooms at the Y brought the chapter's contribution to $850. The money was raised through various community service projects sponsored by the organization.

The chapter, organized in the local Y in February 1939, was the first organized Gradale Sorority in the Ohio-West Virginia Area. Officers of the chapter are Mrs. Robert McCombs, president; Mrs. J. C. Ballinger Jr., vice president; Mrs. Charles Iams, secretary and Mrs. Harold Henry, treasurer.

Mrs. William Clapsaddle is area vice president, and Miss Catherine Watson is a former area president, serving for two years. Mrs. Hugh Webster, chapter mentor, served as state advisor for four years.

Doughnut Week Marked By Golden Age Club

National Doughnut Week was observed by the Golden Age Club of the Salvation Army Thursday with a social meeting at the Army Citadel. The story of the tradition of dunking was presented and "dunkers" were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Christ, Mrs. Susie Thorpe and Mrs. Roma Gillespie.

Officers of the club are Harry Armstrong, president, Mrs. Leona Sanderson, vice president and O. B. Christ, secretary treasurer.

Report 1,000 in Jet Strike Back to Work

CINCINNATI (AP) — The General Electric Co. was said Sunday night to have reported officially "well over 1,000" striking employes were back on their production jobs at the firm's jet engine plant in Evendale.

The Cincinnati Enquirer said the same "unbaised authority' informed it the two strike unions—Local 647, CIO United Automobile Workers, and Local 912, AFL International Association of Machinists—have admitted that "as many as 500" production employes have gone back to work.

A local GE spokesman declined to affirm or deny the report.

General Lafayette, the Frenchman who served under George Washington, received $200,000 from Congress.

MILEAGE MAKER "6" WINS SWEEPSTAKES!

Score a blazing victory for Ford's dollar-saving gas economy! Ford's high-compression Mileage Maker "6" with Overdrive beat every car entered in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, regardless of size or weight, to sweep the sweepstakes! Ford's winning average was 56.70 ton-miles per gallon.* And Ford's high-compression 110-h.p. Strato-Star V-8 with Overdrive was right up there in economy, too, with a record of 48.55 ton-miles per gallon!

The winning Ford was a regular production car, just like thousands of other '53 Fords you see on the road today. This 1,206-mile trip from Los Angeles to Sun Valley covered all types of driving conditions. The route threaded through city traffic, where stop-and-go driving tests an engine's fuel economy under the toughest conditions . . . and out along the highways of four western states.

The Ford Mileage Maker "6" took all this in stride, maintaining a speed above the required 44.25 m.p.h. minimum, to finish 1st in the sweepstakes! What better proof is there that Ford is the thriftiest car of all? What better way to show why Ford is worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it!

OFFICIAL APPROVED BY AAA CONTEST BOARD PROOF!

TON-MILES PER GALLON*

Ford is the first car in its weight class . . . in the history of the Economy Run . . . to win top honors in ton-miles per gallon over all other cars regardless of size or weight.

* The AAA Contest Board determines the winner by a "ton-mile per gallon" formula to insure equal chance for all cars in each class regardless of size and weight. Ton-miles per gallon equals the car weight (including passengers) in tons, multiplied by number of miles traveled, divided by number of gallons of gasoline consumed.

Los Angeles Cops Re-enact Crime on Film

Man Acts Out Murder of Wife After Confessing

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—A man acted out for police the way he said he beat his wife to death with a croquet mallet and chopped off her hands with a hatchet.

And while he starred in this grisly drama, swinging the mallet again, a police movie camera and sound equipment recorded his actions and words. Neighbor youngsters watched over the fence, like fans inspecting a movie troupe on location.

Richard E. Fredericks, 35, returned Saturday night from Maplewood, N. J., where he was arrested, was taken to his Van Nuys home yesterday. The camera on a rolling tripod followed him and a tape recorder whirred—recording the first crime re-enactment ever filmed by Los Angeles police.

Detectives Al. Ortiz and C. S. Stewart said Fredericks, an insurance clerk, told this story:

Last Jan. 7 he and his wife Ruth, 32, got into an argument because she wanted to go back to work as a waitress in a cocktail lounge.

He went outside to work in the yard.

"I was cutting devil grass in the back yard when I heard her running toward me,' he said. "Just as she got near me, she tripped over our children's wagon and fell.

"A knife fell from her hand. She cursed me. There was a croquet mallet behind me which I had been using to pull stakes in the rose garden. I reached and grabbed the mallet and started to swing at her. I don' ktnow how many times. I just kept swinging."

Fredericks said he dragged his wife into the garage. The detectives said he related that later that night, when the couple's three small children were asleep, he returned to the garage and cut the hands off with a hatchet, burying them in the yard to prevent fingerprint identification of the body. Then, he continued, he wrapped the body in an old seat cover and loaded it into the trunk of his car.

Later the same night, Fredericks said,' he awoke his children, told them they were going on a trip and drove 'to Mexico. Near Ensenada, he said, he stopped, told the children he wanted to throw some rubbish out of the trunk of the car, and dumped the body over an embankment.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Albert K. Lucas asked Fredericks on the sound track whether he had been promised anything by anyone for talking.

"No, sir," the husband replied. "I am talking because my conscience hurts."

His wife's body was found near Ensenada in February. Fredericks said he then got scared and moved his children to New Jersey, where his mother lives.

Neighbors here became suspicious and talked with police. Detective Ortiz went to Maplewood and talked with him, and he was returned here.

The children are Carl, 6; Loretta, 4, and Donald, 18 months.

Fredericks, six feet, slender and brown-haired, was stolid throughout the re-enactment until, near the end, he saw some of his children's toys. Then he began to sob.

WAITING OUT DAD'S JAIL TERM. The five children of John Alsvan, 39, are shown waiting for return of their father, who was sentenced in New York City to 28 days in jail for 28 traffic violations when he could not pay a $310 fine. The children's mother, declaring the youngsters have nothing to eat, said she would appeal to her husband's employer to bail her husband out. Alsvan claims the tickets were accumulated on the car he drives for his employer.

Complains Press In Germany Is Critical of U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) has complained that some of 96 German newspapers receiving U. S. financial aid have been "highly critical" of President Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dulles and himself.

In a letter to Dulles Saturday, McCarthy said two investigators he sent to Europe, Roy Cohn and David Schine, had uncovered this and other data. Cohn and Schine are employed by the investigations committee McCarthy heads.

McCarthy said the funds were supplied the newspapers through the State Department's international information program to make sure the German people were kept abreast of U. S. foreign policy. Instead, he said, some of the papers criticized "President Eisenhower, yourself and the undersigned."

McCarthy also protested expenditure of three million dollars to finance an information program newspaper, Neue Zeitung, in Germany.

Social Security Cards Needed By Working Students

Students planning to work this summer in commerce or industry, or as regular domestic employees, will need social security cards, Paul D. Snider, manager of the Marion social security office, said today. He urged them to apply now at the social security office if they do not have a social security card or need to replace a lost card. There is no charge for a card and no minimum age requirement. Application blanks are available at any post office, employment office, or security office, Snider said.

He pointed out that it takes several days to get a social security card, so he advised them not to wait until an employer tells them that they can't go to work until they have a card.

Any young person who has worked in covered employment long enough to have been paid wages of $50 or more in six different calendar quarters is insured under social security at least until he is 24½ years old. If he dies leaving no wife, a lump-sum amount is payable to whomever pays his burial expenses. If he leaves a widow, the lump-sum goes to her. If he leaves a widow and one child—monthly benefits may be payable to both of these survivors until the child is age 18.

"These are some of the reasons which emphasize the importance of getting and using your social security card. Use it Don't lose it!" he urged.

The social security office in Marion is located at 127 W. Church St. The office is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Look for New Loyalty Setup

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's conference with three of Congress' top searchers for subversion today may bring out details of a new federal employe loyalty program.

Atty. Gen. Brownell, invited to attend the conference along with Rep. Velde (R-Ill), Senators McCarthy (R-Wis) and Jenner (R-Ind) and other congressional leaders, said in a radio interview last night the White House will announce details of the new program soon.

FIRST NEWS CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Oveta Culp Hobby, secretary of health, education and welfare and the second woman ever to hold a Cabinet post, scheduled her first news conference today.

Value of Time

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — The biggest problem in everybody's life is how to spend his time.

There is an old saying that "time is money." But, of course, it isn't really. It is much better than money. The Philadelphia mint never coined anything as precious as a month. . .a week. . . a day. . . a minute . . . or a single second. . . if it is a second that gives your life a golden meaning.

Time is much more important in the economics of a lifetime than money. It is like money only in that a fellow only begins to realize its true value when he doesn't have enough of it left to buy the things in life he wants with it.

Most people learn to spend money the hard way—through trial and error. They make mistakes by buying the wrong things at the wrong time, and experience teaches them to do better.

One of the sadnesses of living is that many people never acquire the skill of spending their time as well as they do their money. They feel they have more time than money, and no man ever did.

You can toss away a thousand dollars, and earn it back, and be no poorer in spirit. But one wasted hour in prideful youth cannot be reclaimed. sometimes, by many later bitter, wistful, wiser years. The hole in your heart and mind gapes unclosed forever.

There seems such a wealth of time before you when you start. Yet you don't really know whether there will be much or little, except you can be sure that when the supply begings to run out you will regret it. This is the usual story of man.

Parents try hard to teach their children the value of money. But few make any concerted effort to teach them the value of time. Probably because they don't know how.

But the heart of both problems is the same. You use money to collect things—houses and headaches, automobiles and vacation trips, bank accounts and income tax receipts. You collect from time, however, only memories, sour or sweet.

There should be a way to teach a child early to try to spend his time collecting the right kind of memories. A good life is one that has been expended in acquiring good memories, that bloom instead of fester in the mind.

If a person does that, it makes no difference whether his life work was repairing watches or building huge dams or bridges. All of us can's design cathedrals, and a man can be equally happy if he only carves in driftwood.

We all play at the edge of a vast ocean, as a clock within us slowly ticks toward silence. The ocean is time.

Bored people with bad memories often say, "I wish I knew a better way to kill time." But nobody ever really killed any time. Time just keeps creepnig up on them.

The ocean at last moves up and drowns us and our remaining dreams. But if we have spent our time in the right way, the dreams are still pleasant, the regrets are few, and all is well. We go down in immortal peace instead of screaming for another chance.

77-Year Marriage Ended by Death

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Death has ended one of the world's oldest marriages.

The husband, Nils P. Jonsson, died yesterday at Asmundtorp, in South Sweden. His widow, Bothilda, is 103. Neither had ever been outside their tiny home village.

They were married 77 years ago, on April 12, 1876, the same year Gen. George Custer was massacred by Sitting Bull's Indian tribesmen.

One daughter born to the couple is still living. She is now 70. Two others have died.

Sycamore Guild In Membership Drive

Special to The Star

SYCAMORE — Mrs. Charlot Prouse was hostess to Hospital Guild No. 7 at her home Tuesday. Routine business was transacted with Mrs. Frank Harper presiding. The membership committee reported 48 members with the dues of $48 having been sent to the Wyandot Memorial Hospital Guild of which the Sycamore Guild is a unit. A drive for more members will be continued this month.

The next meeting will be held in September.

ACROSS THE COUNTER

When a family buys or builds a home, the loan company insists on fire insurance in the amount of the mortgage. As time goes on, they assume that the fire insurance is adequate because they pay for it each month in their mortgage payment.

Earl J. Andrews

This is a dangerous practice. Suppose your home cost $10,000 and you have a $6,000 loan and the same amount of insurance. If you have a complete burnout (and such things do happen), the mortgage will be paid off. But, you will receive exactly NOTHING for your equity. Are you willing to sell your home for the amount of the mortgage?

Or, even suppose you have paid your mortgage down to $4,000 and have $6,000 in fire insurance. In event of a total loss you'd have exactly $2,000 and a vacant lot with which to start over. Are you willing to sell out your substantial home investment (the down payment and the years of monthly payments) for so little?.

Let's face it. If you have a major fire tonight what will you use to rebuild?

Full coverage costs very little extra. Why not let us figure this out for you?

Byrd Proposal Starts Controversy

Senators Disagree On How to Balance Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several top-ranking Republicans and Democrats, including Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), agreed today with Sen. Byrd (D-Va) that the Eisenhower administration can balance the next fiscal year's budget.

But there was a wide difference of views about the Virginia senator's proposal that Congress keep excess profits and individual income taxes at present high levels until July 1, 1954, to get the revenue Byrd said would be needed.

And there was evidence that a stiff fight is developing over reported administration proposals to cut sharply the $2,700,000,000 that former President Truman proposed be spent on atomic energy development in the year beginning July 1.

Taft, Republican leader, said in an interview he agrees with Byrd that the budget can be balanced. But he declined to discuss details of the Virginian's week-end proposal to trim $6,800,000,000 off Truman's spending program.

Taft said some figures may be forthcoming when legislative leaders discuss the defense program with President Eisenhower at a White House conference Thursday. The Ohioan has called for a cut of about four billion dollars in defense and about 2½ billion in foreign aid.

Byrd would keep defense spending at its present level and cut foreign aid $2,900,000,000.

Sen. Millikin (R-Colo), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, wouldn't comment on Byrd's proposal for keeping taxes at present levels. The excess profits levy is scheduled to die July 1 and income taxes are due to drop 10 per cent next Jan. 1. A bill pending in the House would advance the date to July 1.

"We'll be all right, though. We'll balance the budget—and we'll reduce taxes too," Millikin declared.

Sen. George (D-Ga) said he believes a cut of six billion or more can be realized "without crippling the defense program or destroying the foreign aid program." But he didn't see much chance of keeping taxes at present levels.

Reports that the Eisenhower administration will recommend a substantial slash in atomic development funds stirred up controversy.

Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said in an interview:

"I don't believe the appropriation can be cut below the budget without hurting the program. It's the one field where I think we have a minimum budget for essential needs."

Asks Long-Term, Low Payment Home Mortgages

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress was urged today to make it possible for persons who need housing to buy their own homes with little or no down payment.

The proposal came from Rep. Schenck (R-Ohio), who said "instead of embarking on a public housing program, the Congress should make it possible for every citizen to own his own home, if he so desires."

Schenck said in a statement the job of providing housing "could be accomplished much more satisfactorily" by liberalizing FHA regulations.

"The terms of mortgages should be lengthened," Schenck suggested," so monthly payments could be kept small, possibly lower than even the rentals of public housing."

Schenck, a member of the House Banking Committee, voted last week to uphold the House Appropriations Committee, which had refused to grant authority to start construction of 35,000 low rent public housing units in the fiscal year that starts July 1.

The Ohioan said "the time has come" for Congress to consider limiting public housing tennants to a specific period of occupancy.

Ike's First 100 Days

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—On Thursday President Eisenhower will have completed his first 100 days in the White House. There will be comparisons between his first 100 days and those of Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Truman.

But these are comparisons without real significance since the circumstances under which the three men took over the presidency were different. A true judgment of Eisenhower's first 100 days may have to wait a year, perhaps years.

It will have to be pegged not so much on what he has done in these first 100 days but on the plans and decisions made in that period for the future.

Roosevelt took over when the country was broke and bewildered. He had to act fast to prevent collapse, and he did, with one emergency measure after another.

Truman's first 100 days were momentous—the surrender of Germany and the disintegration of Japan—but would have been the same no matter who sat in the White House. It was after the 100 days that Truman had to make his big decisions.

Eisenhower inherited, not a world war or an economic emergency, but situations which, while they contained critical elements, were mainly static: The country was amazingly prosperous; there was a cold war with Russia; there was a hot war in Korea.

All three situations had been in existence long before Eisenhower's election and none called for instant solution or emergency handling. Rather, each had to be considered carefully.

The prosperity might not last if the Eisenhower administration was not wise enough to do all the right things as they needed to be done, perhaps one at a time, over a number of years.

But at least with prosperity there was no crisis at home. That may explain why, in domestic problems, Eisenhower has acted at times less like a leader and more like a partner of Congress.

In foreign affairs he has followed almost rigidly a policy laid down by Truman. Some few changes he has made seem small now, but may be so profound in the long run as to be the basis upon which Eisenhower's first 100 days eventually be judged.

He plans to back the French more fully in their war with the Communists in Indochina. Long after the Korean War is over that may be the key to blocking Communist expansion in Asia.

While his administration is talking about reduced foreign aid and defense spending, Eisenhower has cautioned that neither this country nor its allies should relax defense efforts simply because the Russians are making peaceful sounds.

Yet the Russian peace maneuver may have been a factor in persuading the Eisenhower administration it is time now to cut foreign aid and defense spending. If the Russians were acting warlike, it's certain the cuts would not be proposed.

200 Attend Galion OES Inspection

Special to The Star

GALION — Some 200 members and guests attended the annual inspection of Naomi Chapter No. 47, Order of Eastern Star, Thursday night, in Masonic Temple. Mrs. Merwin Wagner, worthy matron, headed the officers in charge of the ceremony.

Worthy matrons and worthy patrons from visiting chapters, past matrons and past patrons from Naomi chapter, and the president and secretary of District No. 10, were among the special guests. Esther Stephans of Upper Sandusky, was inspecting officer.

During the evening, Mrs. Lydia Douglas, 50-year-old-member, was presented. She received flowers from the chapter and her 50-year-pin from the Grand Chapter, and roses from her family.

Before the evening meeting, a dinner for the officers, trustees and distinguished guests, was held at Hotel Talbott. Mrs. Ralph Sipes, associate matron, was in charge, and presented gifts to Mrs. Stephans and Mrs. Wagner.

The New Packard CLIPPER

There hasn't been so much interest in a medium-priced car in years

FIVE months ago Packard announced the new CLIPPER line.

Five months . . . yet wherever you go today . . . in hotels, in restaurants, on trains, at parties, in meetings . . . wherever people gather, you hear them say: "That new Packard CLIPPER is the buy of the year!"

How come?

Well, first there's Packard engineering, traditionally fine, historically dependable. It's largely responsible. Packard, remember, is the oldest maker of fine cars in America.

Second, Packard's manufacturing position is unique. Packard alone with 54 years' experience in fine-car building combines craftsmanship of the highest character and modern mass production techniques that result in greater dollar for dollar values throughout the car.

And in addition to Packard's own exclusive manufacturing pluses, the new CLIPPER is a thrilling car to drive. And what thrill is more important to a man who really loves a car!

There's the Packard engine, famous since the Year One in automotive history. This walloping big powerhouse with a reasonable appetite can purr like a kitten and pull like an elephant.

There's the Packard ride! Smooth, luxurious . . . it will make you want to load 'er up and head for the wide open spaces.

There's Packard's contour styling that is setting the new trend in automotive design.

There's everything you want your family car to have today. In all, around 70 big-car features!

See! Compare! Drive!

In fact, if you'll go to one of the CLIPPER dealers listed below and check the big-car features of this new car, we feel that you'll add your voice to the thousands who are saying: "Packard Clipper! It sure is the buy of the year!"

In addition to the Clipper, PACKARD is building today a car so beautiful and fine that it is applauded everywhere as "America's new choice in fine cars." Ask the man who owns one—today! And re-discover the thrill of driving a Packard!

Did you know that you can own a Packard CLIPPER 4-Door Sedan (illustrated above)

Thousands of American Families Still Must Wait

The prisoner of war exchange brought happiness and relief to a comparative handful of American families but for thousands of others it meant disappointment and more dreary days of waiting.

In the seven-day period last week, 149 Americans regained their freedom in Korea.

But there are an estimated 3,000 more still in Communist hands. The end of the exchange Saturday dashed the hopes of their relatives who had waited tensely throughout the week for word their servicemen might be among those freed.

Thirteen Americans were in Saturday's trade.

Among the lucky relatives were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Dean of Douglass, Kan. They are parents of Air Force Capt. Zach Dean, released after two years.

"I'm wonderfully happy," Mrs. Dean told a reporter. "At first I cried but the tears are all gone now."

At Lawton, Okla., Mrs. Cleola Green, wife of Army Capt. Marin W. Green, said:

"I'll bet if you could take my heart beat right now it will be going 90 miles an hour."

Mrs. Jose Villegas, who lives near San Antonio, Tex., said through an interpreter she, her husband and their eight other children often prayed at a small shrine erected in honor of their son, Cpl. Elias B. Villegas, 24. He was freed after two years and five months.

"I knew my boy would come home," said Mrs. Villegas.

News of Pvt. Earl L. Beck's release momentarily stunned his mother, Mrs. Nellie M. Koopman of Wheeling, W. Va. Then she exclaimed:

"Bless God. I've prayed every day. Bless God."

Film on Ohio Shown Bethlehem Grange

A film on Ohio was shown at a meeting of Bethlehem Grange Wednesday night at the Grange Hall, and plans were made for Rural Life Sunday and for serving the Pleasant and Waldo School alumni banquet in May. The program was concluded with an antique show.

Charles McMahan presided for business. Mrs. Paul Tong and Mrs. Ruby Bogart were reported ill. Announcement was made of the next Pomona Grange meeting May 2 at Bowling Green Grange. For Rural Life Sunday, May 3, a service will be held at 8 with Joseph Fichter, a past State Grange master, as the speaker. Mrs. Robert Dunlap announced that Bethlehem Grange will enter the Grange Little Theater contest. The Ohio film was shown by a representative of the Standard Oil Co. Dates of the alumni banquets were announced by Mrs. Roy Grates as May 16 for Pleasant School and May 23 for Waldo. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Alven Augenstein and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rinehart.

The would-be matador made his bid for stardom by jumping into the arena to do his stuff and put up such a good show that the crowd cheered him on and on. Since it's against the law to do such a thing, Juanito was arrested as he walked out of the ring unhurt but he said he didn't care because he's sure of a job as an apprentice bullfighter now.

Holds Election Under New Constitution

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, (AP)—This small British colony on South America's north coast voted today in its first parliamentary elections under a new constitution.

Twenty-four members are to be picked from 131 candidates for four-year terms in the lower House of Assembly.

Abolition of literary and property ownership voting requirements and the granting of voting rights to women were expected to bring out some 200,000 voters, a vast increase over the 25,000 or so who have voted in previous elections.

The nine members of the upper house, the State Council, will be appointed by the British governor.

Annual Scouter Dinner Will Be Held Wednesday

Annual Fellowship dinner of the Harding Area Council, Boy Scouts, will be held Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. J.F. Kebe of Bucyrus, chairman of the dinner committee, has announced plans have been completed for the affair which will be attended by about 250 Scouts and leaders from the Area.

Highlighting the affair will be the presentation of the Silver Beaver award, the highest award in Scouting given to a leader who has been active in furthering Scout work. This presentation will be made by Roy Shipton of Marion.

Guest speaker will be Johnny Jones, columnist on the Columbus Dispatch.

The Rev. David W. Skeen, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church at Mt. Gilead, will preside as toastmaster.

Included in the program will be the opening and invocation by the Rev. Dennis Herbst, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Cosolation Church, Carey, assisted by two Eagle Scouts, Fred Kull of Troop 15, Emanuel Lutheran Church, Marion, and Nelford Kimerline of Troop 60, Good Hope Lutheran Church, Bucyrus, salutes to the leaders, and the presentation of awards, including membership awards by Max L. Smith of Mt. Gilead, chairman of the council organization and extension committee, training awards by Milo Richey of Cardington, chairman of the council leadership and training committee, and the "Golden Book of Eagle" ceremony by Loy D. Rhoades of Marion, chairman of the council advancement committee.

Dr. Robert T. Gray of Prospect, president of the Harding Area Council, will give a challenge for the future.

Today has been set as the deadline for reservations. Tickets can be obtained at the council office in Marion.

Roberts Wins for Phils Again; Indians Take League Lead

Victory Is 3rd In Week For Phillie Ace

Sweep Over Pirates Runs Team Streak To Eight in Row

By JACK HAND
AP Sportswriter

The Robin Roberts three-day diet is doing wonders for the Philadelphia Phillies. No more tired, run down feeling. No more blue Mondays.

With eight straight wins, a solid grip on first place and a long home stand against the West, the Phils are riding high. They can afford to relax today—an open date for all clubs.

Roberts, of course, has had solid help from Curt Simmons, Karl Drews and Jim Konstanty, but he is Mr. Big.

Unless the pitchers' union blows the whistle on him, the handsome college grad should be closing in on that 30-win mark by September. With a 3-1 start, Robin is running ahead of his 1952 pace, when he wound up with a 28-7 record.

Steve O'Neill, a manager who has been handling pitchers since long before Roberts was born, won't be keeping the kid on the three-day diet when he gets his pitching routine straightened out. Roberts would just as soon keep it up. He thrives on work.

Roberts started last week without a win. He beat New York Monday, 2-1, whipped Brooklyn Thursday night, 6-1, and stopped Pittsburgh yesterday in the first game of a double-header, 7-5. That's right. Two days' rest and pitch every third day.

Drews teamed up with him to sweep the pair from Pittsburgh yesterday, throwing a seven-hitter in the second game for an 8-1 decision with the help of Willie Jones' two-run homer.

George Shuba and Carl Furillo each drove in three runs in Brooklyn's 8-4 victory over the New York Giants in the rubber game of their three-game series. Billy Loes spaced 11 hits to top the Giants for the second time.

Bill Serena's two-run homer featured a four-run rally by the Chicago Cubs in the seventh inning for a 7-5 edge over the St. Louis Cards.

Lopez Adopts Platoon Plan, Tribe Wins 2

Kennedy, Simpson Strike Winning Blows In Outfield Switch

CLEVELAND (AP)—What is Cleveland Manager Al Lopez doing? Copying Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees?

It looked that way Sunday.

Lopez used a two - platoon outfield against the Tigers — right handers against left handed pitchers and vice versa — and it resulted in a double-header victory for his Indians and first place in the American League.

Lopez grinned and said "A fella has to get in on that master minding act with Ol' Casey once in a while." But he quickly added that he was just joking.

"I wanted to give the other boys (outfielders Jim Lemon and Bob Kennedy) a chance to show what they could do. It won't be a regular thing, but if Bobby Shantz (a lefty) goes for the Athletics Tuesday, Kennedy and Lemon will be back in there."

In the first game, right handed Bob Kennedy drove in both runs in a 2-1 victory. In the second, left handed Harry Simpson clinched the 12-2 triumph with a three-run homer.

Bob Feller, who won the first game and his first since Aug. 17, 1952, pointed out — "Great infield support."

The Indians now have played five straight games of errorless baseball. If they can do that four more games they will equal the league record.

In the second game, Simpson got his homer in the eighth, when the score was 3-2. Then the Indians kept scoring until they had a total of nine runs, with Al Rosen driving in the last four with a grand slam homer.

That gave Bob Lemon his third straight victory and the Indians a four-game series sweep over the Tigers and a fifth straight triumph. The only runs Lemon gave up came in the second inning, and Ned Garver, Detroit's starter, drove them both in with a single.

Garver finally had to leave the game after his trick knee popped out of place twice.

The Indians were off today. They will play Philadelphia, first of a

WOODS A WALTZ FOR "THE DANCER." Native Dancer, jockey Eric Guerin up, romps home in 1:50 3-5, 4½ lengths ahead of the pack, piling up his eleventh straight win in the $100,000 Wood Memorial at Jamaica. Second is Tahitian King, with Invigorator a close third. The Dancer will meet the acid test when he goes to the post for owner Alfred Gwynn Vanderbuilt in the Kentucky Derby next Saturday.

Arcaro to Ride Correspondent In Derby

Native Dancer Will Be Strong Favorite In Annual Classic

By ORLO ROBERTSON

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Bring together the nation's No. 1 stakes-winning jockey and a top-flight horse and you are sure to have a popular combination for Saturday's running of the $100,000 added Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs.

And that is just what Mrs. Gordon Guiberson's Correspondent and jockey Eddie Arcaro figure to be when the 12 or so horses swing around the Downs' flower-bordered track in the 79th running of the turf classic for 3-year-olds.

Of course there is a horse by the name of Native Dancer who is certain to be the strong favorite of the turnout of more than 100,000. He has 11 straight victories in an unbeaten career to recommend him as the public's choice. But when Arcaro throws a leg over a

Discus, Pole Vault, 440 Teams Place Well

Harding Ties for 9th In Ohio Wesleyan Relays

Harding High School's track team garnered five points in the 22nd Ohio Wesleyan Relays at Delaware Saturday to finish in a tie for ninth place with the 40 best track schools of Ohio.

The discus team finished third and the pole vault and 440-yard relay teams captured fifth places.

Nevada finished in a tie for third in the Class B division with 12 points while Marysville finished in a tie for fifth spot with three other teams with seven points. In a tie for 11th at two points with four other teams was Richwood.

Springfield dethroned Cleveland East Tech for the second time in as many weeks with its sixth win in the Relays, 37½-31, over the Cleveland team. East Tech has won the Relays six times also.

Winner in the Class B division was Xenia Woodrow Wilson with 39 points to Brecksville's 36. Salem Oak Harbor tied Nevada for third spot with 12 tallies.

Harding's 440-yard relay team composed of Jack Garver, Gary Ballinger, Dick Burtch and Che King finished fifth in the finals in the afternoon with 45.9 after winning its prelimiary heat in the morning in 46.2.

The Prexy discus team of Jack Boxwell, Bill Bailey and Bob Prater placed third with a total distance of 363 feet, 11½ inches. The pole vault team of Max Kaelber, Jack Craft and Ronnie Reed scored a fifth with a total height of 30 feet, six inches.

Scratched From 880

The 880-yard relay team of King, Jim Seiter, Dick Burtch and Ballinger qualified in the preliminaries with time of 1:36.6 but scratched the event in the finals as Saiter had not recovered from another race and it was too dangerous to risk Jack Garver's sore leg.

Jim Zeigler, Frank Green and Marvin McFann totaled 16 feet in the high jump but finished sixth. The broad jump team of Ballinger, Green and Doug Bibler leaped 61 feet but finished sixth.

Harding's mile relay team of Saiter, Green, Jack Andrews and Larry Clinger ran its best time of the season, 3:40.1, but was seventh. The quartet is aiming at the school record of 3:39.1. Harding entered the 480-yard shuttle hurd-

Dick Schantz won the spring medley relay, consisting of 110, 110, 220 and 440 yard runs, in record first running of 1:42.6, Richwood finished fourth in the event.

Nevada's discus team totaled 358 feet, 7¾ inches for second in the event and placed fourth in the shot put event as its team of three boys totaled 119 feet, three inches. Marysville took second in the broad jump as its team jumped 57 feet, eight inches, and third in the distance medley, which is composed of 880, 220, 440 and mile runs.

Ravena Township won the shot put at 135 feet, 6¾ inches; Avon Lake the broad jump at 59 feet, six inches; Brecksville the discus at 374 feet, 2¾ inches; Brecksville the distance medley in 8:24.2

Harding prepares for two big meets this week. The locals compete with Findlay and Fremont in a triangular meet Tuesday night at the Stadium and Friday, Harding takes part with ten other Class A schools in the fourth Marion Night Relays at the Stadium.

Features of the Night Relays will be an 880-yard relay for Marion County high schools and one for MAR-DEL League teams. Morral, Green Camp and LaRue have entered the relay event and more schools are expected to enter.

Double-Main Event On Wrestling Card

A double main event features the Wednesday night wrestling card at the Marion Armory.

Ruffy Silverstein goes with Jim "Goon" Henry and Big Bill Miller wrestles Sammy Silvers in the two main events. Both matches are one-hour, best two out of three-fall matches.

The opening match at 8:30 p.m. pits Joe Scarpello against Speedy "Jules" LaRance. It is for one-fall.

bleheader was rained out.

Bob Feller and Bob Lemon pitched Cleveland into first place in the American League by a margin of 28 percentage points over the New York Yankees. Although the Yanks are a half game ahead in the won-and-lost figures, the percentages, which are the determining factor, give the lead to the Indians. The difference in games played accounts for the confusion. Washington's Jim Busby drove in all the runs with two homers off Allie Reynolds for a 5-4 win, snapping a five-game Yank winning string.

Feller pitched a five-hitter to nip Detroit, 2-1, in the opener and Lemon rode home on a nine-run eighth inning for a 12-2 romp, his third win. The tribe now has won five in a row.

The St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox split two, the Browns taking the first, 7-2, as Bob Elliott batted in four runs with a triple and homer. Joe Dobson shut out the Browns, 3-0, to beat rookie Mike Blyzka in the second game.

The Philadelphia A's and Boston Red Sox were washed out of two games at Fenway Park.

horse in a race as rich as the Derby, he and his mount are sure to commend respect.

Arcaro, winner of four $100,000 races on the West Coast last winter, has been on the front end at the finish of five Kentucky Derbies. He started his string with Lawrin in 1938 and added Whirlaway in 1941, Hoop Jr. in 1945, Citation in 1948 and Hill Gail last year. No other jockey can match that record.

The 37-year-old native of Newport, Ky., has reached the stage where he can just about choose his mount for the Derby. Alfred Vanderbilt wanted him to ride Social Outcast, stablemate of Native Dancer, but after doing no better than fourth back of the Dancer in Saturday's Wood at Jamaica, Arcaro said he would be astride Correspondent in the Derby.

"I would rather have a good shot at the big money," said Arcaro after the Wood, "and I feel I'll have a better chance with Correspondent."

Correspondent will be no stranger to the jockey with the famous banana nose. He rode him to three wins at Lexington's Keeneland, where the LaJolla, Calif.-owned son of the imported Khaled hung up a track record of 1:49 in taking the mile and one-eighth of the Blue Grass Stakes last Thursday.

That clocking was one and three-fifths of a second faster than Native Dancer's time in winning the Wood over the same distance.

Red Emmons, Eddie Morse Winning Pitchers

Harding Nine Wins Two Games From Delaware

Harding swept a twin bill from Delaware Saturday at Lincoln Park, 3-2 and 6-0, behind the hurling of Red Emmons and Eddie Morse.

Emmons held Delaware to four hits in the seven-inning opener for the 3-2 victory and Morse, a regular shortstop pitching for the first time in two seasons, blanked Delaware on two hits in the five-inning nightcap.

John McKinstry, third baseman, drove in Harding's first two runs with singles in the opener. Harding pushed across the winning run in the fourth when Red Emmons doubled off the fence in right field, advanced to third on a fielder's choice, and scored on a wild pitch.

Emmons struck out nine while walking four. Clark, the Delaware hurler, fanned seven and walked one.

McKinstry, continuing his hitting in the second game, singling down the right field line in the first frame with the bases loaded for two runs. Harding sealed the win in the second game with a four-run outburst in the fourth.

Morse whiffed seven and walked six. His teammates played errorless ball behind him.

The pair of wins boosted Harding's record to 4-2-1.

Harding travels to Mansfield today and then Mansfield comes here Thursday. The locals make their first start in the Central District Class A Baseball Tournament Friday at 4 p.m. They will meet the winner of the Washington Court House - Grandview game Wednesday at the winner's diamond.

Drake Relays Captured By Georgetown

DES MOINES (AP) — You can't beat the sun rain-drenched Drake Relays, fans will tell you, and they'll add you can't beat Georgetown or Illinois either.

Georgetown, running with vengeance, turned in smashing victories over its chief conqueror of last year, the University of Kansas, in the four-mile and distance medley relays.

Illinois' two-day effort included victories in three university relays and three individual events. It added three second places and a pair of thirds, placing in 11 events.

The Hoyas came a long way to do one job — humble Kansas—and the heavy rains didn't slow them. In fact their strategy was plain.

Their first three runners were to open up such tremendous leads that Wes Santee, Kansas' fleet miler, couldn't hope to overcome the disadvantage.

Georgetown did just that. In the distance medley Saturday Charlie Capozzoli had a 140-yard lead on Santee at the end.

The Illinois' team performance certainly must be listed with the greatest seen here.

They came through with victories in the 480-yard shuttle hurdle, two-mile and 440-yard relays and the 120-yard high hurdles, 100-yard dash and two-mile run.

Joe McNulty, a versatile hurdler-sprinter, won the high hurdles and ran on the winning shuttle hurdle and 440-yard relay teams. He also ran a leg on the second-place half-mile outfit.

Cardington, Iberia Meet For Title

CARDINGTON—Iberia and Cardington were set to battle it out for the title in the Morrow County baseball tournament here today. The Pirates will be seeking their ninth straight county crown.

Cardington entered the championship game Friday with a 5-3 win over Johnsville. It was the locals' sixth wins against four losses.

Eddie Hempfield went all the way on the mound for the winners. He gave up four hits, struck out 12 and walked only two. Lyle Snavely hurled for the losers, giving up eight hits and two walks. Five errors were committed by his mates.

The Pirates were forced to go eight innings before nipping Johnsville. The runs were scored on a hit batsman, a fielder's choice and a single by Dale Shaffer which drove in one run. Shaffer scored when his brother, Lowell, followed with a two-base hit. Noel Underwood also doubled.

Iberia warmed up for the title game with a 3-2 victory over Mt. Gilead Friday. The President scored once in the first and once in the second and Mt. Gilead knotted the score with

Al Besselink Wins $10,000 Golf Tourney

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Happy-go-lucky Al Besselink, proving he can be as steady as they come with thousands of dollars riding on a six-foot putt, is the first champion of the Tournament of Champions.

He picked up 10,000 silver dollars, delivered by wheelbarrow, by shooting an eight-under-par 280 to whip Chandler Harper by one stroke yesterday in the $35,000 event.

Until yesterday Besselink, 29, had won only $1,545.83 in 14 tournaments this year. With a disposition that earned him the title "The Dizzy Dean of Golf," he did even better at the bank by being confident in himself.

He bet $500 on his chances, at 25-1, and was a factor every minute of the four days of play over the 7102-yard, par 36-36--72 Desert Inn Country Club layout.

At one stage he went 39 holes without going over par on any one. He moved into the final day three strokes up on his nearest rivals—Harper, Cary Middlecoff, Lew Worsham, Ted Kroll and Earl Stewart Jr. Kroll and Stewart blew themselves out of the picture before the first nine ended. H...

Four Teams Will Be Organized

Pony Baseball League, for Boys 13 and 14, Schedules 1st Tryouts

Plans for the expansion of the "Baseball for Boys" program in Marion are progressing and the Pony League boys, those of ages 13 and 14, will have the opportunity to try out for the four teams within the next two weeks.

The Marion Little League Baseball Commission has voted to change the name of the commission "Baseball for Boys Commission" since the program now includes more than just the Little Leaguers. They have also adopted the slogan, "Baseball for Boys in Marion," since it is descriptive of the aim to provide organized, supervised baseball for boys in all ages up to 16.

The Pony League, which will be started this season as soon as a new diamond is built, will cover 13 and 14 years old. This group covers the boys when they become too old for Little League and the league ages of 13 and 14 are determined as of Aug. 1 of each year. In other words, any boy who will not become 15 years old before Aug. 1 of this year is eligible.

All boys at the correct age who reside in the Marion city school district are eligible to play.

There are no restrictions in Pony League play because of race, creed or color. Each boy is judged on his ability to play ball and the teams will be chosen in exactly the same manner as Little League teams. The team managers, after seeing the boys in try-outs, will "buy" the players, using 40,000 "points" or "credits" which will be allotted each manager at the start of the league.

Try-out dates are as follows, with try-outs scheduled at Lincoln Park:

Saturday, May 9, 1 p.m., 13-year olds; 2:30 p.m., 14-year olds; Tuesday, May 12, 4:30 p.m., 13 year olds; Friday, May 15, 4:30 p.m., 14 years olds; Saturday, May 16, 1 p.m., 14 year olds; 2:30 p.m., 13 year olds.

Managers for the Pony League are Don Kay, Max Roseberry, Bob Shoemaker and Joe Roseberry. These men are at present choosing their coaching staffs and drawings will soon be made to allot the managers to specific teams.

The new diamond site at Veterans Housing on Fairground St. is now being filled and grading will follow. Delay from weather and other circumstances will probably prevent the start of Pony League play until after the Little Leagues are under way.

If the "Baseball for Boys" Fund Drive is successful in the near future, it will be possible to light the new field in time to get at least an initial start with 15 and 16 year-old boys. However, the goal of $8,500 must be attained before this phase of the program can be attempted. The Commission urges all people concerned with the Drive to extend their efforts to reach the goal.

Top Star In Penn Relays

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—There's no special award for the outstanding individual performance in the Penn Relays, but if there was the 1953 pick would be a cinch. It would have to be Art Bragg.

Bragg is the hunk of greased lightning from Morgan State who who has been America's standout sprinter for the last few years. But in the big international events —the Pan-Am games and the Olympics — Art has had nothing but bad luck.

At the moment, however, he is sizzling hot, as witnessed by his feats Saturday in the 59th Penn Relays at Franklin Field.

Bragg ran four races, including a morning 100-yard trial heat. He ran three championship races in the space of 80 minutes and won them all. No fast starter, he seemed to explode on the track.

First he anchored Morgan State to victory in the 440-yard relay, won in 41.7 seconds. Then he came back to run a tremendous final leg in the 880-yard relay, giving Morgan State the title in 1:26.3.

The Negro comet climaxed his day's performance by winning the 100 meter dash in 9.7 seconds, running against a gusty wind.

Bragg was the only individual to share in three titles although the University of Michigan's Roland Nilsson won the discus with a record 174 feet, 3⅞ inches and the shot put with a heave of 55 feet, 9¾ inches.

Michigan's sturdy distance runners, anchored by Big Ten mile champion John Ross, captured the distance medley and four-mile relay in another double triumph.

Lenny Truex, former Ohio State student, brought the Ben Franklin mile back to America by beating Finland's Dennis Johansson by five yards in 4:10.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—A brisk rally put the stock market ahead smartly today.

Buoyance was fairly well spread throughout the list with gains running to between 1 and 2 points at the outside. The downside was thinly populated.

Most favored areas and most active were steels, motors, and railroads. Also higher were aircrafts, chemicals, coppers, oils, farm implements, and utilities. Other groups were steady or narrowly mixed.

BOWLING

Robert Ulsh took honors in the Fraternal League at Marion Recreation Thursday when he fired 235-625. His single game was one of five 200 games hurled. Team honors went to C & O with 866 and Moose No. 2 with 2405. Moose No. 1 tops the league at 68-34 with American Legion No. 2 in the runner-up position with 63-39. B'nai B'rith, 58½-42½, is third with Moose No. 2, 56½-43½, next.

Industrial League bowlers were led by Charles Burns' 227-586. Second-place Widemann, tied with Coca Cola at 55-41, annexed team honors with a 924-2583 performance. Farm Bureau Insurance, 60-33, leads the league and Walt Mayes, 45½-50½, is third.

Louisville Takes Association Lead

By The Associated Press

Louisville climbed atop the American Association standings Sunday with an explosive 9-5 victory over cellar-bogged Kansas City as Indianapolis dropped to second in a doubleheader split with Toledo.

The Louisville - Kansas City battle was scoreless until the sixth inning. The Colonels reached starter Harry Schaeffer with a vengeance then, nocking him out with a four-run assault.

Indianapolis' Indians won their opening game at Toledo 5-4 as Dave Pope socked two home runs but the Sox came back with a 7-4 victory in the nightcap. Paul Rambone belted a grand slam homer for Toledo in the finale.

In another doubleheader split, Columbus beat Charleston 11-6, then lost to the Senators 7-3.

Minneapolis rallied behind the eight-hit pitching of Harry Nicholas for a 5-3 victory over the St. Paul Saints.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago Grain Market

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains and soybean futures opened strong on the Board of Trade today. Corn was up as much as a cent a bushel and soybeans as much as 1¾ cents.

A bullish influence in corn was the Department of Agriculture announcement that it will extend for one year lonas on the 1952 corn crop. This will permit farmers to keep their corn on farms through July 31, 1954, unless the government decides to make them mature earlier.

Wheat opened ⅜ to ¾ higher, May $2.20 to $2.20⅛, corn was up ¼ to 1 cent, May $1.57⅞-1.59, oats were ⅛ to ¼ higher, May 74⅞-75, and soybeans were ¼ to 1¾ higher, May $3.07-3.06½.

Although there are four main human blood groups, it is estimated that blood-group factors are capable of 132,710,400 different combinations.

LEGAL NOTICE

In the Probate Court of Marion County, Ohio, Case No. 19728.

Theodore A. Parsell admr. of the estate of George Ash, deceased, Plaintiff vs. the unknown heirs at law, next of kin, devisees, legatees, surviving spouse, and assigns of George Ash, deceased; and the Home Federal Savings and Loan Company, Marion, Ohio, Defendants.

The unknown heirs at law, next of kin, devisees, legatees, surviving spouse, and assigns of George Ash, deceased, will take notice that Theodore A. Parsell, administrator of the estate of George Ash, deceased, on the 20th day of March, 1953, filed his petition in the Probate Court within and for the County of Marion and State of Ohio; alleging in the first cause of action thereof, the necessity for determination by the Probate Court of Marion County, Ohio, of the heirs at law, next of kin, devisees, legatees, surviving spouse, and assigns of George Ash, deceased, and by alleging in his second cause of action, thereof, that the personal estate of said decedent is insufficient to pay his debts and the cost of administering his estate that George Ash died, seized in fee simple of the following described real estate to wit:

Situated in the County of Marion, in the State of Ohio, and in the City of Marion, and bounded and described as follows:

Being Lot Number 1270 and fourteen (14) feet off of the West side of Lot No. 1271 in Loves First Addition to the City of Marion, Ohio.

The prayer of said petition is for the determination by the Probate Court of Marion County, Ohio, of the heirs at law, next of kin, devisees, legatees, surviving spouse, and assigns of George Ash, deceased, and for the sale of the aforesaid premises for the payment of debts and costs of administration. The persons above mentioned will further take notice that they have been made parties Defendant, to said petition, and that they are required to answer the same on or before the 23rd day of May, 1953, or judgment will be taken against them

TELEVISION IS ROUGH
on rugs and carpet

Have you noticed the extra wear in front of your sofa and chairs where you have TV? Then it's time to do something about it. We suggest a throw rug at these heel scraping points and we have a lot of very inexpensive ones in various sizes. They are all-wool carpet samples that have been discontinued and we wish to dispose of them quickly so we are pricing them way under their true value.

Freezers Useful In Plane Making

MARIETTA, Ga. (UP) — Deep freezers also are useful in making airplanes.

The Lockheed Aircraft plant here, where B-47 jet bombers are built, has two walk-in deep freezers for keeping aluminum alloys "soft" until they are ready to be worked.

Certain aluminum alloys get their strength from heat treatment, sometimes as high as 970 degrees Fahrenheit. Right after the heat treatment, they are relatively "soft" and easy to work, becoming gradually harder and stronger with age.

Someone discovered long ago that putting heat-treated aluminum on ice kept it "soft" indefinitely.

So Lockheed keeps the deep
